NATION FACES 50% INCREASE IN RAIL RATES

Billion Wage Demand Up Today.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., March 21.—[Special]—Demands for wage advances totaling $1,100,000,000 will be presented by the leaders of 1,850,000 railroad employés to the joint conference of managers and workers which meets here tomorrow at the call of President Wilson.

The consideration of these demands, which were pressed unsuccessfully on the eve of the return of the roads to their owners, will test the efficacy of the machinery provided by the new railroad act designed to prevent strikes and bring about amicable settlement of wage disputes.

Present Pay and New Demands.

The present railroad payroll and the new wage demands follow:

	Present.	New.
Train crews...	$ 708,000,000	$ 890,000,000
Shopmen	730,000,000	184,000,000
Maintenance of way	577,636,000	401,000,000
Telegraphers ..	115,000,000	50,000,000
Clerks	415,000,000	175,000,000
All others.....	225,000,000	.....
Totals.....	$2,770,000,000	$1,100,000,000

Commerce Commission's Task.

The wage conference opens on the same day that the interstate commerce commission begins hearings to determine what advances in freight rates will be necessary to provide for the $1,030,000,000 of advances in wages already granted during the two years of government operation of the railroads.

Under the provisions of the transportation act of 1920, recently signed by the president, the interstate commerce commission is directed to make railroad rates that will yield a minimum of 5½ per cent on the aggregate value of the railroads. The great advance in cost of operation, chiefly for wages, during the twenty-six months of government control, has reduced the railroad net income to about 2¾ per cent, or half the minimum under the new law.

Rates to Advance 50 Per Cent?

Railroad traffic experts estimate that to provide revenues sufficient to take care of the billion dollar wage advances already granted, an increase in freight rates of approximately 25 per cent will be required. The extent of this increase will be for the interstate commerce commission to determine, after hearings that are expected to extend well into the summer. The decision must be made before Sept. 1, when the government guarantee of war earnings expires.

If the new wage conference results in a further increase in the railroad pay roll then under the transportation act the commission again will be obliged to raise freight or passenger rates, or both, to provide the additional revenues to pay the wages. It is estimated that each increase of a cent an hour in wages rates adds $50,000,000 a year to the pay roll, requiring an advance of 1½ per cent in freight rates. The granting of the new billion dollar wage demand would, under the law, require a further 25 per cent advance in freight rates on top of the 25 per cent advance about to be considered by the interstate commerce commission.

Radicals Overrule Conservatives.

In the last eight months of government operation new wage demands kept on accumulating. While the leaders of some of the more conservative unions, notably Warren S. Stone of the locomotive engineers, L. E. Sheppard of the conductors, and W. G. Lee of the trainmen, believed that further large wage increases would only increase production costs and living costs, and urged a waiting policy, the radical labor leaders, especially in the shop crafts, were insistent on further wage advances. The result was that the conservatives, for self-protection, had to follow along with the radicals, and make proportionate demands.

All of these new demands, covering 1,850,000 of the 1,950,000 employés, have now been turned over to the railroad companies.

Makeup of the Conference.

On the national wage conference called to pass upon these new demands are seventeen leaders of the railroad unions and fifteen railroad managers. The public representative will sit on the board. The new railroad labor board, authorized by the transportation act, has not yet been appointed by the president. This board will consist of nine members, three each from the employés, the railroad managements, and the public. It will sit in Chicago.

"JEAN CRONES" IS CAPTURED AGAIN; FADES IN GRINS

Chef Looks, Acts Like Poisoner, but—

Jean Crones, soup poisoner extraordinary to 200 of Chicago's most prominent citizens, has got away again, and Charlie Schott, professional bondsman, feels he's saved $1,000.

It's the most peculiar yarn that has been untangled by the police in many a year, and Acting Lieutenant William Howe still feels kind of queer about it.

Imagine the drowsy old Chicago avenue station, dozing on the Sabbath eve, suddenly electrified into the belief that it has in its custody Jean Crones, sought for four years all over the United States.

Crones, you will recall, was a chef at the University club. On the occasion of a banquet to Archbishop Mundelein on Feb. 10, 1916, he brushed a little poison into the soup and sickened quite a number of Chicago's best known citizens. Several died later, but their deaths could never be traced directly to the soup.

The Newest "Jean Crones."

Well, there's Desk Sergeant Mike Miniter going calmly over his blotter, and Bill Howe looking over the funnies in the Sunday supplement, when in walk Detectives Blaul and Carter with "Jean Crones."

"Jean" said his name was Eugene Heller; address, 26 West Ohio street; occupation, chef. In his room the police had found vials of mysterious liquids, one of which was pronounced chloroform.

Other vials also were believed to contain poison. "Jean" or "Gene"—it sounds the same, anyway, and he responded to the name, indifferent to the spelling—said he had picked up the bottles in the automobile of Dr. F. R. Braun. Dr. Braun said "preposterous." Then "Jean" said other things, ending with "I don't know where I got them."

Descr ions Tally.

Bill Howe went back in his memory to the descriptions of Jean Crones and dug out a picture. It looked identically like Heller. The eyes, cheekbones, nose, mouth, jaw, ears, hair were alike. Even the way the hair was combed was the same. And when Heller smiled, as Crone smiled in the picture, there were the identical depressions in the cheeks and the jaw.

Both Crones and Heller had been born in Germany. Both had tattoo marks on the left forearm and the left hand—the iron cross and an anchor. Both were nervous. Both smiled frequently. Both were chefs. Both had worked all over the world. They were of about the same age.

Charlie Gets a Shock.

The lieutenant had Heller write the name, "Jean Crones." Heller wrote the first name "Gene." The lieutenant compared this signature with one written by Crones himself.

"By golly!" he said. "Look at that capital C! Look at that s!"

Charlie Schott edged his way closer.

"Why, that's my tenant," he said. "Hello, 'Gene'! Why, lieutenant, don't you remember? I went his bonds that time he was arrested for living with Edna Cory, and he got 113 days in the bridewell."

"He may be Jean Crones," said the lieutenant. "Look at this picture."

Charlie looked. Then he looked at Heller. Then he looked back at the circular. "One thousand dollars' reward," he read.

Club Aids Mystified.

The checker and the assistant steward of the University club, Stanley Worobice, and James McCory, who knew Crones, came to look at Heller. At first they said, "That's not the man." And the more they looked at him, the more they studied him, the less sure they were about it.

Then came A. J. Brisette, steward of the club, and Detective Sergeant John Aiken, who knew Crones well. And they said Heller might be a Heller all right, but he wasn't Crones.

"What they pinch him for, anyway?" asked Charlie Schott.

"A woman named Bertha Allen, with whom he lived, told the cops he had boasted he was a stickup man, knew all about the Mills shooting, had knockout drops in his room, and wanted her to help him hold up a theater box office man going to a bank—and, O, lots of things," he was told.

"Oy," said Charlie. "Oy, such a relief. I thought I almost lost me $1,000 by that fellow. I'm glad he ain't Jean Crones. But, say, by the way, that feller owes me rent yet!"

"Drygins" of Prohibition Gulp Booze Worth $200,000

Miami, Fla., March 21.—Liquor valued at nearly $200,000 was seized here in the last twenty-four hours by federal, county, and city officers. Most of the liquor was taken from boats just in from the Bahama islands.

THE CHANGING WORLD

[Copyright: 1920: By John T. McCutcheon.]

An autocrat who has reigned supreme — is threatened by a new pretender to the throne.

In 1896 Bryan fought on a financial issue. — In 1920 he will fight on a moral issue.

The old time spirit of conquest — seems to be with us again in a thin disguise.

IT'S TOUGH HERE, ON RENTERS, BUT O! YOU NEW YORK

New York, March 21.—Further huge increases in apartment house rents in this city within the next two years were predicted today by Stewart Browne, president of the United Real Estate Owners' association. He spoke at a massmeeting of landlords, at which vehement protest was voiced against proposed legislation to fix rentals.

"Rent increases are bound to come," Mr. Browne asserted.

"However," he said, "there is no use killing the goose that lays the golden egg. These increases must not come at once. They must be arrived at slowly and they must not be jabbed in too soon. There are 1,250,000 tenants, many of them who cannot stand further raises, but I have it on good authority that there are only about 50,000 tenants who cannot find accommodations."

Mr. Browne was interrupted when he said landlords ought to be satisfied with a net profit of 20 per cent on their realty investments. Cries of "No. no. that isn't enough," came from all parts of the house.

Bill Gives Disabled Anzacs $20 a Week All Their Lives

MELBOURNE, March 20.—A government repatriation bill just introduced raises the pensions of permanently disabled Australian soldiers to $20 weekly for life for unmarried men, to $24.50 for a man with a wife and no children, and to $30 for a man with a wife and three children. Partially disabled men are to receive $10 weekly.

WIFE'S BULLETS BRISK UP MOVIE

Man, Two Women, Shot in Backstage Triangle.

The fourth reel was whirring towards the climax of a western thriller in the Iola movie theater at 1238 Milwaukee avenue shortly after 9 o'clock last night when the Polish spectators were startled by two shots and a woman's screams.

Some started for the doors, but some remained stolidly in their seats, thinking that, as the sounds came from the direction of the screen, a realistic touch had been added by the management.

Back of the screen things were happening in earnest. Mrs. Mary Piatrowski, wife of Theophil, manager of the theater, was attempting to remove the third corner of her domestic triangle—Mrs. Julia Dombowsk, 2441 Walton street—and she was trying to do it with a .22 calibre revolver. The first bullet struck Mrs. Dombowsk under the right eye and lodged in the cheek bone. Mrs. Dombowsk screamed.

Bullet Through His Hand.

Piatrowski leaped for his wife and tried to avert further shots by clamping his right hand over the muzzle of the weapon. He was unsuccessful. The second bullet went through his hand and lodged in his wife's left arm.

Piatrowski seized his wife with one hand, and, with Mrs. Dombowsk leaning on the other arm, made his way through the theater to the street. Those who had remained in their seats were informed the show was over. Piatrowski called a taxi and drove with his wife and Mrs. Dombowsk to the office of Dr. Harry J. Freemmel, 858 North Robey street, who dressed their wounds.

"Don't tell the police about it," cautioned Piatrowski. "It was only a family quarrel and is all over."

Patrolman Heard Nothing.

But as soon as the three had left Dr. Freemmel notified the West Chicago avenue station and the Piatrowskis were taken there. That was two hours after the shooting. A patrolman near the theater was questioned.

"No shooting happened around here," he said. "I've been standing on the corner nearly all evening."

Now Some Slicker Will Sell Spanish West Indies

MADRID, March 21.—The police have discovered the theft of documents from the National Historical archives. The theft is believed to include a number of papers connected with the discovery of America.

STRAWBERRIES IN PARIS BRING 63 CENTIMES EACH

Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable. [Copyright: 1920.]

PARIS, March 21.—Paris newspapers record with horrified comment this morning the price of the first strawberries of the year, which arrived in market yesterday. They were brought, it appears, from Nice by aeroplane, a distance of nearly 500 miles. In all, there were, in the consignment, 894 strawberries in forty-five little baskets. When put up for auction they brought 559 francs, or 63 centimes for each berry. The retail price is not recorded.

Dry Workers Get $10,000 Even if Plans Failed

Washington, D. C., March 21.—[Special.]—One of the skeletons in the Anti-Saloon league closet is rattling its way into the open. This concerns the expenditure of $10,000 of government money, appropriated for preliminary work of the "fifteenth international congress on alcoholism" at the request of William Jennings Bryan, then secretary of state.

This congress was to have been held in this country in 1915, but the war prevented. Nevertheless, the $10,000 was drawn and spent.

For two and a half years an ardent Prohibitionist drew a monthly salary as manager of publicity for this congress that never was held; two stenographers who happened to be the stenographers of Dr. Dinwiddie, drew salary during most of the same period and rent was paid for a room in the Bliss building, that happened to be one of the offices of the Anti-Saloon league.

It might have gone on indefinitely had not the state department suggested that an end be put to the expenditure until such time as the object became a possibility.

Dolls Used as Camouflage for Smugglers of Liquor

Boston, Mass., March 21.—An Italian immigrant woman's eagerness to remove from her trunk a large china doll led to the discovery by customs officials today of 300 quarts of brandy hidden in various parts of the liner Cretic, from Mediterranean ports.

The officers also noticed that two other women were cuddling dolls. They found a gallon jug of brandy beneath the dress of the first doll and a quart bottle concealed in the clothing of each of the others.

Nun Killed, 9 Injured, 60 Periled, in Convent Fire

Wilkesbarre, P., March 21.—[Special.]—One nun is dead and nine are seriously burned or injured as a result of a fire which destroyed the Wilkesbarre convent of the Order of Mercy this morning. Sixty nuns were trapped. Many jumped into nets from the second and third story windows.

5,000 WEEP AND YELL FOR ERIN AND DE VALERA

Equal Throng In and Out of Auditorium.

Eight o'clock, and outside the Auditorium theater 5,000 persons still clamored for admission. Every door, every emergency exit, even the stage entrances in the alley were beleaguered. Husky policemen, replacing ushers, stood guard everywhere.

Inside, had you been sitting on the stage, you would have gazed at tier on tier of humanity; 5,000 persons, each with a shamrock, and wearing or waving the orange, white, and green of the "Irish republic." And one thought dominated all—that pretty soon Eamonn de Valera, "president" of that "republic," would speak.

Oral and Choral Overtures.

There had been the customary oral and choral overtures. A tenor of John McCormack lung power had sung "O'Donnell O'Boo" and "The Wearin' of the Green"; the choir boys of St. Patrick's had sung the "Soldiers' Song," the "republic's" anthem and battlecry, which, a friendly gentleman on the right had confided to us, "you get arrested for if you sing in Dublin." And somebody had introduced Congressman William E. Mason.

Then up rose Attorney Hugh O'Neill, chairman of the meeting.

"I wish to introduce," he said, "the president of the Irish——"

Pandemonium and Worse.

Nobody heard the rest. Mr. O'Neill concluded in pantomime, by walking over to Mr. de Valera, leading him to the speaker's table, and bowing himself back to his own chair. Before Mr. de Valera arose there had been merely pandemonium. Then it became worse.

One minute he stood there. Two minutes, three minutes, four, five, six, seven. And what were the 5,000 persons doing. Everything that persons do in similar circumstances of emotional stress. They yelled, they sang, they screeched, they stamped, they clapped, they jumped up and down, they tossed hats, they waved flags and handkerchiefs.

You wondered how many had responded to "President" de Valera's plea to subscribe to the "Irish republic loan."

You wondered what he was thinking about. Did you ever see this man, who some say history will rank as the George Washington of Ireland?

As De Valera Looks.

A tall, spare figure, drooping shoulders, ungainly gait and carriage. It is the face that arrests attention—homely plain, seamed with deep lines, a long, thin face, a high sloping forehead, aquiline nose, thin, beaked chin, beetling black eyebrows, from under which peer deepest, piercing black eyes.

For seven minutes he stood there, gazing without the shadow of a smile at the demonstrants. Then some one on the stage seized a huge orange, white, and green flag and draped it about him. Another threw over his shoulders the American flag. And the demonstration started afresh. This time it lasted for a minute.

Used to Emotions.

Apparently he is either used to emotional outbreaks or else his mind is occupied with more fundamental matters, for when he had finally been allowed opportunity to speak, he merely said:

"We have traveled many a long

Berlin Siege Lifts; Ebert Takes Helm

BERLIN, March 21.—[By the Associated Press.]—The government of President Ebert, which left Berlin a week ago when Dr. Wolfgang Kapp and his reactionary troops entered the city, is again in power in the capital.

President Ebert and the members of his ministry reached here at 11 o'clock this morning from Stuttgart, and soon afterward the order for a state of intensified siege was withdrawn.

Meanwhile, the signs and symbols of the Kapp dictatorship, the wire entanglements and the barricades, were being removed. Public services have in a measure been reëstablished, and it is hoped Berlin soon will resume its normal activities, though it will be a long time before the damage wrought, material and moral, will be repaired.

Ebert Must Use Care.

A cabinet council deliberated throughout the afternoon to determine the steps necessary to bring Germany back to her position prior to the revolt.

This, it is believed, will require considerable maneuvering and delicate handling, for the independent Socialists and workmen are making heavy demands for concessions, to which they feel they are entitled because of the commanding position some of the groups hold in other parts of Germany outside of Berlin.

Noske to Stay for While.

The future position of Gustav Noske, minister of defense, is the subject of discussion. While his resignation has been demanded by the radicals, it is considered probable that he will retain his post for a time at least.

There are rumors that later Noske and Dr. Heine, as well as Chancellor Bauer and Foreign Secretary Mueller, will be omitted from the new administration.

It is declared the new cabinet will include active representatives of labor, Carl Rudolph Legien, president of the Federation of Trades Unions, being named for chancellor.

Berlin Streets Are Quiet.

The streets of Berlin, for the first time in a week, presented a peacable aspect today.

The shops were closed, but only because it is Sunday. Trains were running, but the tramway service was not resumed.

A manifesto issued today by the trade unions advises a resumption of work now that all grounds for continuance of the strike have been removed.

It adds that the fundamental causes of the reactionary coup d'état lie in the "unnatural peace of Versailles," radical amendment of which the manifesto declares to be necessary.

The semi-official news agency says that nothing is known regarding the reported suicide of Gen. von Luettwitz, head of the Kapp military forces.

Hotels Resume Service.

Many of the hotels, crippled for several days by the strike, are feeding their guests. This does not apply to the Hotel Adlon, a large number of whose guests, fearing the hotel would be attacked, moved out today.

Not so the Jewish guests, however. Many of them have not appeared on the streets since Saturday. Those unprovided with canned goods are actually suffering. The anti-Semitic agitation, however, has diminished considerably since the Baltic troops left the city.

Voice from American.

COPENHAGEN, March 21.—Ellis L. Dresel, the American representative at Berlin, has expressed to the German government his satisfaction at the termination of the military coup and the reëstablishment of constitutional conditions, according to a Berlin dispatch today. He was convinced, he said, that public opinion in the United States would strongly condemn any attempt from whatever source to break down orderly institutions by violence.

Make Your Booking Now; Red Ark Sails in 4 Weeks

New York, March 21.—While "Big Bill" Haywood, I. W. W. leader was denouncing at one meeting here tonight, "indignities" to which the department of justice had subjected "Communists, Socialists, Anarchists and Russian workers," Representative Isaac Siegel was announcing at another gathering that 400 more "Reds" would be deported from America within the next four weeks.

Philippine Women Cast First Primary Ballots

MANILA, March 20.—[Delayed.]—Women voted today at the Democratic primaries in the Philippine islands to elect delegates to the territorial convention in April, when six delegates to the national convention will be chosen. It was the first time women participated in a primary here.

GERMAN REDS AT BAY; RUHR CLASH BREWS

Loyal Troops Gather for Battle.

COBLENZ, March 21.—[By the Associated Press.]—Three thousand persons were killed in the fighting at Leipsic before the government troops captured the town Friday, according to statements made by three American business men who arrived here tonight from Leipsic, which place they left Saturday night.

Up to Wednesday there was strike agitation in Leipzic against the Kapp régime, then anarchy and soviet control until the government troops shelled the Volkshaus and labor headquarters Friday afternoon, the Americans say.

There were 2,000 persons in the building, who were shot down as they made their exit. The shells finally set fire to the building, killing hundreds of other persons.

Street Fighting Heavy.

There was a demonstration on March 14 in which thirty-six persons were killed. Then the workmen obtained arms and street fighting was heavy until an armistice was arranged Wednesday, March 17, at noon. The armistice ran until noon on Thursday. A Saxon aviator flying over the city on Thursday was shot down by rifle fire.

The fighting continued from Thursday between the workers, using rifles and grenades, and the Reichswehr and loyal volunteers until the Volkshaus affair Friday afternoon. Then the trouble gradually quieted down.

REDS HOLD RUHR BASIN

COBLENZ, March 21.—[By the Associated Press.]—The Spartacans gained control of the Ruhr district today.

The Red army took possession of Essen, Duisburg, Ganbern, Mullheim, and Mettmann, west of Elberfeld.

A report at noon states that reichswehr troops from Duisburg have cut their way through to Dinslaken, south of Wesel, where a reichswehr concentration apparently is taking place.

A direct report from Duisburg says that a soviet government has been set up there. No private telephone conversations are permitted except for the procuring of food and coal.

In Essen bombardments and street combats lasted more than twenty hours. Several of the streets are badly torn up and the casualties and property damage are enormous.

Red Army of 70,000.

The Red army in the Ruhr district is reported to have available a force estimated at 70,000 men, all of whom probably are armed.

The situation is considered extremely critical because of the rapid growth of the Red army and their mobility, which was displayed in the taking of Essen.

There are about 6,000 troops of Gen. von Watter's command in that vicinity, but, of these, 1,500 are said to have been forced to retire across the boundary into the British occupied area.

However, there are no further reports of bloodshed and it is believed the imminent march of the government forces now being concentrated will quickly quiet the region, although on Friday it was feared there would be the most serious clash since the armistice brought theoretical peace to Germany.

Statement by Ebert Régime.

BERLIN, March 21.—[By the Associated Press.]—Southeastern Germany is reported to be quiet, but unrest is spreading among the agricultural classes in Pomerania and Mecklenburg. The Communists are still in control of Stettin, but the troops have left Kiel, which is now quiet.

The ministry of defense has issued the following communiqué:

"Three districts are threatened by the radicals. The situation is very serious in Westphalia and the Ruhr district. Dusseldorf, Dortmund, Elberfeld, and Barmen are in the hands of the radicals. Troops are en route.

"Thuringa and Mecklenburg and the Pomerania section are quieter. Kiel is in the hands of the radicals, the military police having joined the workmen.

"Berlin is quiet. The Verhard brigade will leave Berlin today in compliance with the orders of Gen. von Seekt. It is supporting the Ebert government and maintaining order. A truce at Leipsic has been signed by the Independent Socialist leader, the reichswehr commander, and the Saxony government."

Leipsic Reds Give Up.

BERNE, March 21.—[By the Associated Press.]—The Volkshaus, in Leipsic, headquarters of the Communists, capitulated today after a hard fight with the reichswehr, according to dispatches received here. Five persons are dead, twelve were seriously wounded, and fifty taken prisoner by the troops as a result of the fighting.

Conflicts continue in other quarters of Leipsic. Many parts of the city have been set on fire by Communists, who are hindering the work of the firemen with machine gun fire.

Pillaging and excesses of all kinds by radicals are reported. The reports declare peaceable citizens were waylaid, robbed, and shot.

Mannheim Reported Quiet.

STUTTGART, March 21.—[By the Associated Press.]—Reports from Mannheim say the bridges on the south side of the Neckar river have been closed to prevent the spread of unrest that has appeared in the factories of Mannheim and the suburbs.

The workmen are said to have been showing passive resistance, such as greatly lowered production, to enforce their demands for increased power for their workmen's councils. Thus far there has been no disorder, but precautionary measures are being taken by the military officials.

The city of Nuremberg has ended its five day paralysis, which was marked by civil warfare, rioting, and an attempt by bolsheviki to rush the public places and control the town. Telephone messages from Nuremberg conceded this information, as well as details of the rising.

The street car service was resumed today, the workers returning to the factories, and the stores reopening. The casualties during the five "Red days" have not been tabulated, but they are heavy.

Shooting in Berlin Suburbs.

LONDON, March 21.—Shooting affrays were in progress last night in the outlying districts of Berlin, according to a Berlin dispatch to the London Times. They still continue at Moabit, where apparently a large number of strikers have armed themselves against the remaining military forces.

There has also been intermittent fighting in the neighborhood of the zoological gardens, where some units of the naval brigade are still quartered.

All was quiet in Frankfort Sunday afternoon, says a dispatch to the Times from Brussels.

A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Berlin says the United States diplomatic representative has informed the German government that it will be impossible for the United States to allow food supplies from abroad to enter any part of Germany where trouble prevails.

First Train from Berlin in Week at Amsterdam

THE HAGUE, March 21.—The first train from Berlin since a week ago arrived last night at Amsterdam. According to travelers, the train was obliged to travel with dimmed lights some distance to avoid being fired at by Spartacists.

EBERT ADDS KAPP AND HIS GANG TO WAR CULPRIT LIST

Will Feel Full Weight of Law, He Declares.

STUTTGART, March 21.—[By the Associated Press.]—The immensity of the damage caused in Germany by the revolution and the consequent uprising, and the government's present determination to prosecute the guilty were voiced by President Ebert today before he left for Berlin.

"I am optimistic enough to think that the damage has not been catastrophical and that is also the opinion of the cabinet," President Ebert said. "I am sorry the events of the last few days have proved there are still circles in Germany that think the distress of the lost war not great enough. They are the same groups that always desired war; they are the incitors of the militarists and reactionaries."

Will Punish Kapp Leaders.

Regarding punishment of the Kapp leaders and the expectation by some that the state of siege would make necessary the execution of all the guilty, the president declared:

"Those guilty shall feel the full weight of the law. All officers of responsible position and all leading civilians who joined wilfully will be regarded as guilty, be charged with high treason and might be punished with penal servitude."

Regarding executions under martial law, Herr Ebert said:

"The lawyers will determine. Perhaps some will be executed besides the confiscation of their property. We want to punish the leaders, but to spare those who were forced into the movement or acted through ignorance."

"All Well" in Near Future.

The president said it would take time to restore complete quiet, but declared he was confident all would be well.

He expressed his thanks to the foreign governments for their attitude during the crisis, especially to France and Austria, which countries sent diplomatic representatives to Stuttgart, and to England, whose representative from the beginning dealt with the old government.

Gustav Noske, minister of defense in the Ebert government, is quoted as saying on his departure: "They thought I'd come back in a top hat, but they'll be surprised to see me come back wearing a helmet."

Three Held for High Treason.

BERLIN, March 21.—Three editors of the East Prussian Zeitung have been arrested for high treason at Koenigsberg, the home of Dr. Wolfgang Kapp. It is announced that the request of Dr. Heine, the Prussian minister of the interior, that he be permitted to resign has not been granted in view of the abnormal situation.

OHIO MAN DIES IN BERLIN.

BERLIN, March 21.—Frederick Haserot, a business man of Cleveland, O., died here Saturday.

RED SPLOTCHES ON GERMAN SOIL

1—The Ebert government is back in Berlin and is removing all traces of the Kapp régime as fast as possible. The city is rapidly resuming a peaceful aspect. Shooting is reported in the outlying districts of Berlin.

2—The Reds are in control in the Ruhr valley and the industrial region of the lower Rhine. Street fighting has been going on in Essen for twenty hours. The Red forces here number 70,000 men.

3—A bolshevist reign of terror is reported in Leipzig. Pillaging of homes and robbery of peaceable civilians is reported. Many parts of the city have been set on fire by the communists. Troops are opposing the Reds.

4—Twenty-five Americans trapped in Leipzig have been rescued by a special train from Coblenz, it is reported.

5—Unrest spreads among agricultural classes in Pomerania and Mecklenburg. Communists still control Stettin, but the troops have left Kiel, which is now quiet.

6—Nuremburg ends five day paralysis. Street car service renewed. Workmen return to jobs.

EX-CROWN PRINCE REFUSES "I'LL BE GOOD" PLEDGE

WIERINGEN, March 20.—[By the Associated Press.]—Former Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany, beyond the statement that he has no desire to return to Germany at this time, has given no pledge to the Dutch government, either with regard to an attempt to escape from Wieringen or participation in politics, according to one who is closely in touch with him.

The government, however, is evidently satisfied with conditions here, for today the second Dutch torpedo boat withdrew and Frederick William is absolutely unguarded and free to move about the island at will.

Shadow Roils Ex-Kaiser.

AMERONGEN, March 21.—The constant pacing of the sentinel behind former Emperor William when he walks in the Bentinck castle garden has so annoyed the one time German ruler that on several occasions he has told the guard not to follow him so closely but to stay out of sight.

GERMANY SOON BACK ON ITS FEET, NOSKE DECLARES

Play Fire Extinguisher on Reds, His Plan.

BY HENRY WALES.

[BY CABLE TO CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

STUTTGART, March 20.—[Delayed.]—Just before starting for Berlin, Gustav Noske, minister of defense in the Ebert government, granted me an exclusive interview as follows:

"The revolution cannot properly be called a military movement because the army did not participate. The only troops that were disloyal were the marines. The reichswehr remained loyal.

"Order has been reëstablished except in a few places in the Rhineland, Westphalia, and the Ruhr basin. We sent troops to a few places and they are rapidly restoring order and reinstating the government authorities.

Workers Wish to Return.

"Most of the workmen who have been striking this week now wish to return to work. Isolated anarchist elements are attempting to incite a continuance of the strike disorders, but are failing.

"There is no foundation for communism in Germany.

"Russian bolshevism is not connected in anyway with German communism. It is true there are soviets in a few communities in Germany since the revolution, but they cannot last. The present form of government will live in Germany. The members of it may be changed, but the constitution is here to stay. There is no possible change in the political form of the German government.

Would Quit But Has Work to Do.

"I would like to resign myself, but I still have work to do. A revision of the treaty of Versailles would strengthen the present form of government because the monarchists' cause is based on demands for the amelioration of certain conditions in the treaty. But the government will continue to fulfill the treaty it signed to the best of its ability even if no changes are made. A few alterations and concessions in the treaty, obviating the discontent, would eliminate the monarchist movement.

"In my opinion the ringleaders of the conspiracy—Von Kapp, Luettwitz, and the others—should not be prosecuted, but ignored."

AMERICAN GIRLS FLEE GERMANY IN SPECIAL CAR

BY PARKE BROWN.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1920: By the Tribune Company.]

BERLIN, March 21.—Showing their anxiety regarding events in Berlin, the American mission has dispatched some of its members, four girl employés and the wives of two American correspondents, by special car on the night train to Cologne. From there the car will be expedited to the American control at Coblenz.

TRAIN REACHES COBLENZ.

COBLENZ, March 21.—[By the Associated Press.]—A number of Americans from Berlin arrived in Coblenz today. Among them were Frederick Simpich of the American consular service and his wife and son; Mrs. Daphne Marquette, who was a clerk of the American embassy at The Hague, but who has been in Berlin since the armistice was signed; Allen Goldsmith of New York, representing the American relief commission, and Mrs. Goldsmith, the Misses Ellen and Catherine Corbin of Washington, D. C., clerks of the Berlin mission, and Miss Mary L. Thompson, a clerk, of Anniston, Ala.

Those who reached Coblenz were put up by army billeting officers at the Young Women's Christian association hostage houses and hotels in the city. They said that at no time during the trip were they in personal danger.

Twenty-Five from Leipsic.

The special train which left Coblenz at 2:15 o'clock Saturday morning to bring out 200 Americans and British business men reported endangered at Leipsic, where serious disorders have occured, reached Leipsic ot 1 o'clock this morning without incident.

The train left Leipsic with its passengers at 10:30 a. m. Only twenty-five Americans departed on the special.

Americans Could Make Them Just as Good—But....

We're running pretty strong on foreign hats this Spring.

They cost only a little more than the domestics now, and no one can dény that they are better than the general run.

Those makers over there still have something on most of our makers.

But ours would make them just as good if the big demand here were not for lesser hats.

That is shown in some of the domestics we handle.

Our outlet for fine hats has become so enormous that we give the best American makers a chance to do their best.

Capper & Capper, with their many stores, have one of the biggest fine hat businesses in the country. Few realize that; it has come so fast.

This all counts for you when you are looking for something really good.

Our line also takes in the man that doesn't want to spend much—gives him the same relative advantages.

LABOR UNIONS RULE GERMANY BY COMPROMISE

Ebert Under Thumb of Their Dictatorship.

BY PARKE BROWN.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright, 1920: By the Tribune Company.]

BERLIN, March 21.—The Ebert government, which defeated the Kapp government by promising to admit Conservatives into a share of power, now finds itself twisted under almost absolute control of organized labor. Germany seems about to be ruled for two or three months by a dictatorship of the working class.

When news of the Ebert government's concessions reach the various industrial districts where the Spartacides are in power it is probable their position will become untenable, and that the Red control will pass into government hands.

Unions in Control.

The concessions which the Ebert regime was forced to make to bring about a suspension of the general strike leaves the government almost if not entirely dominated by the labor unions until the national election is held in May, or, at the latest, in June.

The first paragraph of this agreement provides that the pending reorganization of the cabinet will not be effective until approved by the labor unions calling the strike. The two other paragraphs extremely radical are the ones requiring immediate socialization of the coal mines and potash industry and requiring the government to take over all available foodstuffs, confiscating if necessary.

The labor unions were compelled to withdraw only two of their original demands. One of these was the creation of a police force, exclusively of members of the unions. The other was the retirement of the Prussian minister Oesser, who, the Ebert government is convinced, is not guilty of the main charge of supporting the Kapp government.

Radicals Keep Up Fight.

The Independent Socialists and the Communists have joined in a declaration that the general strike must be continued. The strike committees of the two parties in a long session pronounced the concessions by the Ebert government insufficient, particularly because the punishment of the Kapp followers is not specified, and there is no provisions for complete disarmament of the army, constabularly and home guard units. On this disarmament the Reds absolutely insist.

The councils of the electrical factory workers will decide late today finally whether or not the government concessions are agreeable to them. The concessions agree to socialize their industry.

KAPP PLOT ENDS LUDENDORFF AND HINDENBURG IDEA

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[By Special Cable.]

STUTTGART, March 20, via Paris, March 21.—It is believed Marshal Ludendorff's intermingling in the conspiracy of revolution is the death knell of Hindenburg's chance for the presidency. Everyone believes Hindenburg is a real soldier, but he always is thought of as aided by Ludendorff. Since the latter cast in his lot with the Von Kapp régime, Hindenburg would be unable to have him as part of his official family and, lacking him, would be unable to fulfill his duties. Furthermore it is feared Hindenburg would be a plaything of politicians.

The Ebert government is gratified that the allies did not recognize the Von Kapp government.

BERLIN DEMANDS PART OF FIRST SCHLESWIG ZONE

COPENHAGEN, March 20.—The German government has presented a note to the plebiscite commission demanding a frontier line which would give a large section of the first Schleswig zone to Germany, according to the National Tidende.

Germany claims certain territory as belonging to Flensburg's hinterland, and also asks for the town of Tondern, where in the recent elections the majority of votes cast favored adhesion to Germany, offering to make certain considerable economic con-

FICKLE CROWD MAKES IT TOUGH FOR TOM O'TOOLE

A cop sure has it easy. Here's Tom O'Toole of Town Hall—you can almost sing that, eh?—in a nice new uniform, called upon to arrest a man named John Shea.

Shea was on a north bound Clark street car, and the car crew and the passengers said he was in good spirits, knocking everybody over and trying to take charge of the car. They gave O'Toole a cheer when he went to arrest Shea. But Shea didn't cheer. He clung to the brake handle.

O'Toole and Shea tumbled off together, and because O'Toole was on top and Shea was hurt the crowd got ugly toward the policeman, and he was saved only through a riot call and the arrival of more police, they say. And his nice new uniform was damaged, too.

Rain, Hail, Floods Sweep Havana, Tie Up Traffic

HAVANA, Cuba, March 21.—A heavy rain accompanied by a hailstorm of unprecedented violence swept over Havana this afternoon, flooding houses, paralyzing street car traffic for nearly two hours, and causing numerous minor accidents and loss of small craft in the harbor. The Spanish liner Cadiz was carried from its moorings by the gale, but timely assistance saved it.

DELAWARE ROW MAY LOSE VOTE TO SUFFRAGISTS

School Code Differences Split Legislature.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., March 21.—[Special.]—On the eve of final victory in the long fight for national woman suffrage, ratification by the Delaware legislature which convenes tomorrow is endangered by a factional fight over the state's school code and the redoubled efforts of suffrage opponents in and out of Delaware, who are making a last desperate stand against ratification of the national amendment.

Delaware, if the suffrage forces win, will be the thirty-sixth state to ratify, since the Washington legislature, which also convenes tomorrow, is expected to ratify unanimously and without delay, Washington having been an equal suffrage state since 1910.

Republicans Get Credit.

Up to date no state legislature having a Republican majority has failed to ratify the amendment. Republican governors and state and national committeemen from Massachusetts to South Dakota have been pouring last minute telegrams into Delaware, addressed impartially to Gov. Townsend, who is leading the fight for the school code, and to Daniel Layton, Republican state chairman, who is opposing it.

Both men are ostensibly in favor of ratification of the amendment, but in spite of a suffrage statement issued by Layton suffragists count him among their enemies.

The senate president is on record as opposed to suffrage, but even more opposed to the present school code. The house floor leader is for suffrage and for the code.

Suffs Shy Several Votes.

Polls of the legislative members show one vote short in the senate and one more than needed in the house, while the suffrage poll, which is leaving nothing to chance, shows three votes lacking in the senate and six short in the house.

Many of the legislators know little and care less about the amendment, and others are being intimidated by the argument that it is unconstitutional.

Should the legislature refuse to ratify, the suffragists will lack one state and will be forced to try to win in Vermont or Connecticut, whose governors, both Republican, have refused so far all appeals to call special sessions.

Vote Sure in Olympia.

Seattle, Wash., March 21.—[Special.]—There is no doubt in this state as to the action the legislature will take on the national suffrage amendment when it meets in special session at Olympia tomorrow. The amendment will be ratified by a big majority, if not unanimously.

CHRISTIANS, JEWS, JOIN ARAB DECREE OF INDEPENDENCE

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[By Special Cable.]

DAMASCUS, March 14, via London, March 21.—The Arab zone in Syria is in suspense waiting for an expression of the attitude of the allies regarding the declaration of independence at the coronation of King Feisal following the demand that the French and British withdraw their troops from the western zone and Palestine.

Emir Mahomoud Faour and other chiefs of the tribes throughout Syria, who are leaders of the revolts against France here, openly announce they will fight to the last drop of blood of the last man any foreign power occupying the country. The conservatives, hopelessly in the minority, urge a policy of watchful waiting.

The Syrian declaration was signed by the Christians and Jews on condition the Arab government will be Godfearing and non-sectarian, respecting all religions. Members of the congress elected under the Turkish system in all parts of Syria shook hands with their king following the ceremony.

Better 16 in Jail than Ford in Senate: Andrews

Menominee, Mich., March 21.—Roger M. Andrews, convicted with Senator Newberry, received a big welcome tonight on his arrival home. He was showered with floral tributes. Speakers congratulated him for "helping beat Henry Ford." Andrews expressed satisfaction with the reception and asserted that "it were better that sixteen men go to jail for a violation of the election law than to have Henry Ford in the senate." He denied there was anything illegal in the fight.

LABOR BOARD OF LEAGUE MEETING TODAY IN LONDON

LONDON, March 21.—The governing body of the international labor bureau created by the league of nations will begin its sessions Monday under the leadership of Albert Thomas, director general of the international labor organization, who will present a plan for organizing the governing body and for providing its budget.

Mr. Thomas today deeply regretted the lack of representation on the labor body by the United States, whose place has been taken by a Danish delegate to maintain the official organization of twelve government representatives and six representatives each from the employers and workers.

U. S. GOODS MAY BE RESOLD TO U. S. BY NORWEGIANS

CHRISTIANIA, March 20.—American representatives are trying to purchase dry goods and wearing apparel bought from the United States from 1918 to 1920 for reëxport to the United States, as the prices here are 50 per cent lower than now prevailing in America.

The Norwegian embargo now in force prohibits such exports as sought by the American representatives.

Reds Promise to Cease Their Attacks on Finland

Washington, D. C., March 21—A cablegram to the Finnish legation from the home office today said that Tchitcherin, the Russian bolshevik foreign minister, had notified the government of Finland that bolshevik attacks on the Finns would be stopped.

WASHINGTON NEWS —IN BRIEF—

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21.

LEADERS of 1,850,000 railroad employés will present wage advance demands totaling $1,100,000,000 to the joint conference of managers and employés here tomorrow. The question eventually will go to the railroad labor board soon to be appointed by the president.

THAT Liberty bonds will command a premium in the market within two years is the belief of Controller of the Currency John Skelton Williams. Mr. Williams said there is no occasion to be alarmed over the present market conditions.

THE Knox resolution declaring peace with Germany is to be revised and senate leaders say there will be a comfortable majority for a simple repeal of the declaration of war.

Jugo-Slavs, Bulgaria, and Greece May Form Alliance

BUCHAREST, March 21.—Platon, former bishop of Odessa, recently in Bulgaria, says he has been charged by King Doris to form an alliance between Bulgaria, Jugo-Slavia, and Greece, to insure these countries against the communists and to settle frontier differences. It is asserted that the three countries are working to bring about a new Balkan confederation, and especially to obtain Thrace for Bulgaria and also to retain friendly relations with Turkey. It is said also that they will try to form an economic union between Roumania, Bulgaria, and Italy.

OUIJA CAN'T GET ANY VOTE DOPE ON SOUTH DAKOTA

Wood, Lowden, Johnson in Neck and Neck Race.

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Sioux Falls, S. D., March 21.—[Special.]—On Tuesday's direct primary, that will instruct ten delegates to the Republican national convention, one guess is as good as another. Gen. Wood, Gov. Lowden, and Senator Johnson apparently are neck and neck in the homestretch of the race. Senator Poindexter, the fourth contender, does not figure as a possible winner.

The Wood organization contends that Gen. Wood will have 15,000 plurality over the next man. This is a reduction of 10,000 from the Wood figures of last week and of 20,000 from the Wood estimates of two weeks ago.

Lowden's Hope in Farmers.

Gov. Lowden's management said tonight that all depends upon the condition of the roads Tuesday and that the vote of the farmers and their wives will settle the issue. The roads generally are impassable.

Senator Johnson has everybody guessing. It is an even money bet, with no takers here, that the Californian will win. He has no particular organization handling his campaign, but he seems to be gaining votes.

That Johnson is a most dangerous factor and possible victor is the only point on which the Wood and Lowden camps agree. Johnson has profited materially and directly by the contest between Wood and Lowden, which reached the personal stage a week ago and has culminated into cross charges of extravagant campaign expenditure.

Four prime factors seem to stand out in figuring Tuesday's prospects, the farmers, labor, the newly enfranchised women, and the Nonpartisan league.

Farmers Against Training?

Lowden has had the edge with the farmers, it is claimed by the Lowden managers, on the assumption that the farmers are against compulsory military training and that Gen. Wood represents that policy. The Wood managers who are running the candidate, not as "Gen. Wood," but as Mr. Wood, recognize this and are arguing that Gov. Lowden favors compulsory training as much as does Gen. Wood.

A large part of the labor vote seems to have been separated from Lowden by the Wood organization. Johnson, however, has made a last minute bid for it that probably splits it 50-50 between Wood and Johnson and hurts Wood's prospects materially.

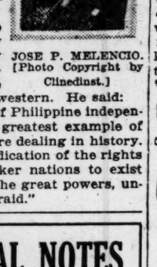

The women form an unknown quantity. Probably 20,000 or 30,000 of them will vote in the state. They have been closely organized by the Lowden and Wood forces. Nobody knows how they will vote.

The 20,000 nonpartisan leaguers who are expected to vote in the Republican primary seem to be headed toward Johnson, according to today's reports in both Lowden and Wood camps. About all that is definitely known is that they are not for Wood.

William H. Malone, former chairman of the Illinois state board of equalization, is a distinct factor in the finish. He has campaigned the state for Wood and his attacks upon Lowden have been answered in kind, and South Dakota now knows more about the internal state affairs of Illinois than does 90 per cent of the population of Illinois. It is conceded that Malone's course has hurt Wood materially.

Gen. Wood finishes an eight day campaign of the state tomorrow night.

FILIPINOS UNITED FOR INDEPENDENCE, SAYS ENVOY HERE

The Filipino people are unitedly for independence, Jose P. Melencio, acting director of the Philippine independence campaign in the United States, said yesterday at the Blackstone hotel. He announced a second mission is on the way to this country to ask immediate independence.

Mr. Melencio speaks tomorrow before the City club and on Wednesday before the students at Northwestern. He said:

"The granting of Philippine independence will be the greatest example of international square dealing in history. It will mean a vindication of the rights of small and weaker nations to exist side by side with the great powers, unhindered and unafraid."

POLITICAL NOTES

Gov. Lowden is the choice of 85 per cent of the Republican county chairmen of Arkansas and of a majority of the state central committee, according to a canvass made by the New York Sun and Herald. Gen. Wood received one first choice vote among the county chairmen. None of the Republican officials of the state voted for either Senator Johnson or Herbert Hoover.

Wood is uniting the Republican forces of Nebraska, according to F. P. Corrick of Lincoln and N. P. Dodge of Omaha, who were visitors at the Wood headquarters yesterday. "Gen. Pershing is not a strong factor in the state campaign," Corrick said. "Only three candidates have filed, Wood, Johnson, and Pershing."

The Illinois Holstein Friesian association, which includes hundreds of the leading stock raisers in its membership, has indorsed Gov. Lowden for the presidential nomination.

Wood forces started an active campaign for the control of the New Jersey delegation at a conference yesterday in Newark, N. J., presided over by former Gov. E. C. Stokes.

Organization of the Lawyers' Lowden League of Chicago was announced yesterday. Col. Abel Davis is president, John L. Fogel, vice president, and A. R. Gates, secretary.

G. O. P. CLAIMERS STILL CLAIMING COY MINNESOTA

Michigan Reception Pleases Lowden.

Claiming Minnesota was the chief occupation of the president makers in the Congress hotel yesterday. At both the Lowden and the Wood headquarters the word was given out that the state was safely in the column of the aspirant for whom the speaker was boosting.

Wood men went all the way and asserted the entire twenty-four delegates would be for the general at the June convention. The Lowden adherents were more modest, and while not issuing a formal statement, let it be known that to their certain knowledge the governor would have fourteen of the delegates, if not sixteen, when the balloting is started.

Col. William C. Procter, chairman of the Wood national campaign, said that, taken from any angle, the result in Minnesota was a distinct victory for his candidate.

"Tried to Avoid Strife."

"In view of the fact that it was known that the entire delegation from that state was composed of Wood men and loyal supporters of his candidacy, no effort was made to push for an instruction at the convention Saturday," he said. "We were certain of the delegation, and rather than stir up any internal strife in the Minnesota situation we thought it better not to ask for instructions. At that, the instructions were only lost by a vote of 595 to 500.

"Of the four delegates at large, Alvah Eastman is head of the Wood publicity in that state, Mrs. Manley L. Fosseen is chairman of the woman's division of the Wood campaign in Minnesota, Mile Bunnell of Duluth is the original Wood supporter in Minnesota, and R. H. Bach, the other delegate, is also a Wood man.

"Wood will get the entire twenty-four votes of the Minnesota delegation to the national Republican convention beyond a doubt."

Michigan Likes Lowden.

Gov. Lowden passed through Chicago yesterday on his way to Springfield from Detroit, where he addressed three mass meetings Saturday. He spent five days campaigning in Michigan last week and reported large and friendly crowds everywhere. He expressed himself as well pleased with his reception.

Gov. Lowden expects to remain in Illinois until April 1, when he will go to Washington as the guest of Senator Medill McCormick for a series of conferences with Republican leaders at the national capital.

SENATE FAVORS RESOLUTION TO DECLARE PEACE

May Oppose Treaty Plan at San Francisco.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., March 21.—[Special.]—While President Wilson is meditating what course he will pursue as a result of the failure of the senate to ratify the peace treaty, the senate leaders are proceeding with their plans to put through the Knox resolution declaring peace by repealing the declaration of war.

Senaor Knox is ill and may not be back in the senate for several days, but he hopes to be able to get the resolution before the senate before the end of the week.

It became known today that the senator intends to revise his resolution, and the prospect is that it will be materially shortened by the elimination of extraneous provisions. Senate leaders are of the opinion that a comfortable majority can be mustered for a simple resolution repealing the declaration of war.

Predicament for Democrats.

If Mr. Wilson is going to content himself with taking the issue into the campaign, his first task will be to swing the Democratic party in line for the league without reservations. That will tax his genius for leadership, for the Democratic party is split on the question of reservations and there is a widespread feeling among Democrats that the party will only court disaster by indorsing the league without change.

Letters written from Washington yesterday and today make it doubtful whether the San Francisco convention will demand unconditional ratification of the peace treaty. The attitude taken by the writers of the letters seriously jeopardized the domination of the convention by President Wilson in so far as the peace treaty plank is concerned.

Seek Aid in Embarrassment.

In urgent appeals to the Democratic leaders of more than a dozen northern and western states Democratic senators who broke from the Wilson-Hitchcock leadership on Friday sought help in their embarrassment. These senators do not want the San Francisco convention to adopt a plank demanding unconditional ratification of the treaty at all, if they can avoid it.

Some Democratic senators actually favored some of the reservations, and they are anxious that the national platform on which they must fight for party success through the summer and fall should not be such as to put them in the "contemptible quitter" class.

Britten Has Peace Bill.

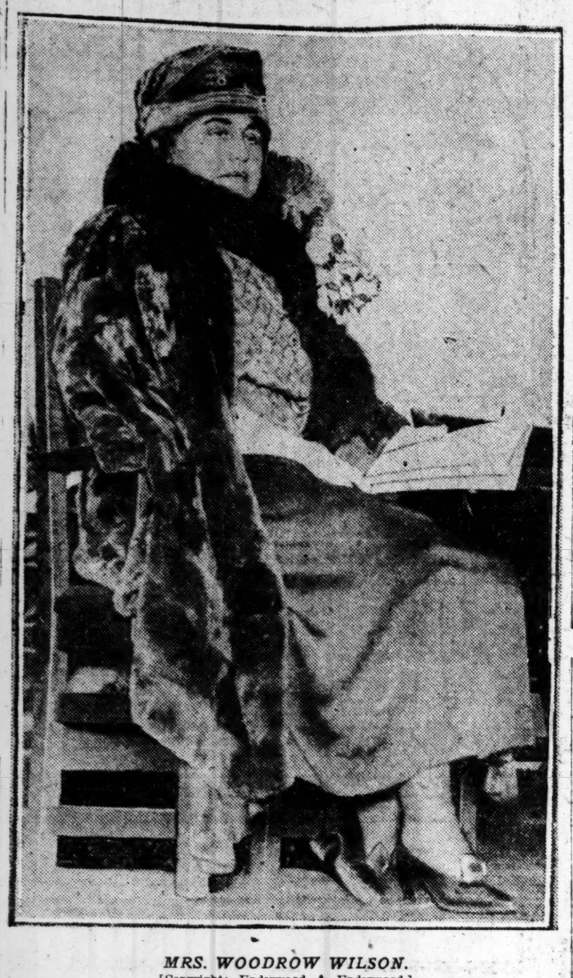

Representative Fred A. Britten of Chicago will introduce in the house tomorrow a bill providing for the establishment of a separate peace between the United States and the governments of Germany and Austria.

The bill also authorizes the creation of a European trade council (consisting of the president, who shall be ex-officio president of the council, and the secretaries of commerce, labor, treasury, and state departments) to work out and report to congress a plan for securing the resumption of commercial intercourse with European nations.

Twenty thousand dollars is carried in the bill for general expenses of the council in its preparation and study of existing conditions with a view to recommending to congress legislation which will provide not only suggestions for natural trade resumption but also a definite plan for financing European credits.

FRANCE WILL BE REBUILT BY 1921, SAYS A. C. BABIZE

A prediction that France will be rebuilt before the end of 1920 was made yesterday by A. C. Babize, who spoke before the current events class in the First Congregational church of Evanston.

"France's mills are now 62 per cent of what they were in 1914," he said. "Immigration has stopped from Italy. The Italians are staying home to aid in the work of reconstruction there. Great Britain is making such strides in the world's trade that unless we look out there will be none for us.

"The bitterness and unfriendly spirit of war must be forgotten and the nations must work together if normal conditions are to return. And Germany must be one of them. I hope France will not press Germany too hard for her indemnity. If she does Germany will not be able to pay, and when she collapses economically the other nations will go down with her, the United States included."

BRITAIN DONS ITS OILS TO WEATHER U. S. CRITICISMS

Times Gives Warning of "Oppressor" Gale.

LONDON, March 22.—The London Times, discussing the rejection of the peace treaty by the United States senate, says that the "rout of President Wilson is for the time being complete."

"None the less," it adds, "we believe that the American people are unlikely to withdraw their influence in world affairs or to be satisfied with playing only a small part in the league of nations."

Always Weathered Storms.

Referring to the warning of its Washington correspondent that England in the campaign will be denounced as the oppressor of Ireland, Persia, India, and Egypt, and the supporter, together with France, of the "new imperialism," the Times says: "We have gone through the same sort of storms before, though this one promises to be exceptionally violent, and they have not hurt us much."

Senate Action Deplored.

The Daily News deplores the senate's action.

"The results of America's dissociation from the vast work of rebuilding the world," it says, "must be calamitous. Her decision will give an inevitable impetus to all the forces of disorder everywhere, and will retard the growth and gravely weaken the authority of that symbol and instrument of international coöperation, of whose birth America was, beyond any other nation, the prophet."

The News contends that although the senate's action grievously handicaps the league of nations, it will go forward.

Fails to Stir Paris.

PARIS, March 21.—The rejection of the treaty of Versailles by the United States senate has been so long discounted in France that the news caused little sensation. The morning newspapers print the fact for the most part without comment.

The Journal points out that the question of ratification of the Anglo-Franco-American convention must now come up for discussion and inquires whether President Wilson will maintain a project which was so intimately connected with the peace treaty. It recalls that the whole operation of the league of nations and economic reorganization of the world was based on American coöperation.

REVOLT GROWTH THROUGH ISLAM ALARMS FRANCE

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[By Special Cable.]
[Copyright: 1920: By the Tribune Company.]

PARIS, March 21.—The Pan-Islamic revolt is in full blast. The fighting spreads from Thrace through Anatolia to Arabia. Semi-official French reports assert the Islamic revolt is connected with German events.

In Thrace the Turkish colonel, Jaffer Tayar, openly attacks and defies the allies. Greek troops occupying Thrace face him. In Anatolia Italian troops were hurled back to the seaboard by Mustapha Kemal's troops, but French troops in Cilicia and upper Syria gallantly are resisting the Turkish nationalist onslaught.

"Bad news from the orient and Syria and Cilicia. France has there 40,000 men and also an important fleet. But this is not sufficient; Gen. Gouraud demands reinforcements. France is entangled there in an endless military expedition."

EACH WAY A TURK TURNS HE SEES A BRITISH WARSHIP

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 20.—[By the Associated Press.]—The passing of the sultan's power is grimly evidenced by the long line of British dreadnaughts in the Bosporus.

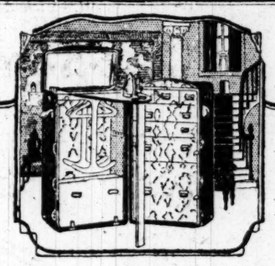

The sultan issued an exhortation to his subjects yesterday to pursue their usual vocations in peace, regardless of foreign occupation.

Meantime a British warship was steaming toward Malta carrying Reouf Bey and many others of the nationalist leaders who were supporting Mustapha Kemal's opposition to the dismemberment of Turkey and who were taken in a raid on Constantinople preceding its occupation.

The nationalists charge the sultan with treachery, and say he lacks courage and patriotism.

Mustapha Kemal and his committee have the interior of Asia Minor largely ot their mercy.

Mohammed VI., sultan of Turkey, looked older and more broken than usual yesterday monring as he made his weekly ride in state from Yildiz palace to Mejidieh Jami.

road since we were here six months ago, and it is a pleasure to note you are not tired of us yet."

He spoke of the "republic's" flag, how it had "been baptized in the blood of martyred Irishmen." He told why the flag had been adopted and why the harp had been abandoned—"because the harp had been placed in a delicate position politically, but here was a flag no one could misunderstand. The orange stands for the north of Ireland, the white for the south, and the green for all Ireland. And it is not a flag of a republic that is to be established, but of a republic already born."

Hard Words for Britain.

Then he paid his respects to Great Britain, referring to it as a "murderer, a robber, and a thug." Lloyd George was a verbal acrobat, not to be believed.

The famous scrap of paper, or the treaty concerning the inviolability of Belgium, which the Germans ignored, had many precedents in Great Britain's secret diplomacy, he said. And until America entered the war every disillusioned Irishman believed the war was merely another one between empires due to greed of conquest or for commercial supremacy.

He was convinced that no Irishman had killed the lord mayor of Cork.

"Knowing the record of the British government," he said, "how innocent women and children have been slaughtered, I am certain the lord mayor was murdered by a British thug."

Says House Will Follow Senate.

He referred to the action of the United States senate in incorporating in the peace treaty a resolution favoring freedom for the Irish people. The house of representatives would soon take similar action, he said.

At the conclusion of his speech, De Valera addressed an overflow meeting from a fire escape of the Auditorium.

London Editor's Comment Mild on Irish Reservation

LONDON, March 22, 3 a. m.—The Morning Post, commenting on the senate's passage of the "Irish independence" reservation to the peace treaty, says:

"Lincoln had some cause to complain of British expressions of sympathy with the south in the civil war. Here we have a case that pretty nearly coincides, for the British government stands, if not for union, at least for common sovereignty in the United Kingdom. The unity of these islands under one supreme government is as important to the British people as the unity of the United States was and is to the American people."

Frown on Canadian Navy, Minister Will Junk Ships

Ottawa, Ont., March 21.—[Special.]—Following the party caucus in which it was decided not to inaugurate a naval policy, instructions have been issued to disorganize the present Canadian naval force, also to stop all naval work at Esquimalt, Halifax, and St. John. Further it has been reported that the vessels now in the Canadian navy will be sold. It is probably the result of the personal pique of the minister of naval affairs, who feels hurt at being turned down by the party caucus.

SEEK SOURCE OF BOND JUMPER'S ESCAPE MONEY

Ollus Dixon Brought Back from West.

Ollus R. Dixon, 5426 Haddon avenue, who recently jumped $10,000 bonds, after he had been indicted on a charge of having embezzled $8,000 from his former employers, the Gamble Hinged Music company, 67 East Van Buren street, was brought back to Chicago last night by Detective Sergeant Alexander Gasperik and Attorney Lawrence E. Dowd from Tulsa, Okla., where he was arrested a few days ago.

Shortage May Reach $20,000.

Dixon left the employ of the music company last November, after having served them for nearly seven years as bookkeeper and confidential secretary. It was discovered he had been taking the company's funds in small amounts for a long period. A shortage of $8,000 was checked up, but officials of the company say the total may be as much as $20,000.

Dixon was indicted by the January grand jury. On Feb. 16 he was released on bonds furnished by Thomas J. Dowd, a brother of Attorney Dowd. Dixon was supposed to be without funds when arraigned in court, and the state's attorney's office will conduct an investigation to find out who had furnished him with money to leave town. He had been employed, it is said, by a private detective agency at various times.

Traced by Lawyer.

Attorney Dowd received a tip that Dixon had stopped at the Cordova hotel in Shreveport, La., under the name of Richard Woods. When the attorney reached Shreveport he learned Dixon had been at the hotel from March 7 to 15, but had checked out. Mr. Dowd followed him to Tulsa, where Dixon was employed by the Gilliland Oil company.

THOUSANDS SEE BODY OF CORK'S SLAIN MAYOR

Chaplain Appeals Against Retaliation.

CORK, March 21.—Thousands of persons from this city and the surrounding country today passed through the city hall, where the body of Lord Mayor MacCurtain, who was assassinated early Saturday morning, was lying in state.

A procession of mourners two miles long followed the hearse yesterday when the body was conveyed from his late residence to the town hall. Bishop Colahan walked in front of the first body of the Cork Sinn Fein volunteers, which acted as a bodyguard and which furnished the guard of honor in the town hall during the night.

Pleads Against Reprisals.

The Catholic bishop of Cork, in his address at the cathedral today, said the country had received a terrible shock in the murder of the lord mayor, but that he advised that no reprisals be made. Ireland's cause could not be advanced by outrages, he said. The only party to derive advantage from the crime wave in Ireland was the party which always had refused and still was refusing freedom to Ireland. The bishop denounced the search by the military of houses after the murder as callous and inhuman. He said the military ought to apologize to the city. The Protestant bishop and other ministers also denounced the murder from their pulpits today.

Appeals Against Retaliation.

Today a proclamation printed in English and Gaelic and signed by Father Dominic, chaplain of the republican guard, was posted about the city. It said: "The public will observe Monday as a civil holiday to afford the citizens an opportunity of testifying their respect to our chief citizen and their horror at the brutal and cowardly manner in which he was done to death. Let no provocation move our citizens to retaliation or to any unseemly act."

The only reason suggested for the assassination of the lord mayor is revenge for the recent murder of policemen.

Many Involved in Murder.

James Walsh, a brother-in-law of Lord Mayor MacCurtain, was sleeping in MacCurtain's home on the night of the murder. Several shots were fired at him. He said that there were some men in the street near the lord mayor's house while the murderers were inside. These men, he said, were armed and disguised and they held up several persons and threatened them with death if they moved within half an hour.

At the inquest yesterday a significant incident was the fact that the solicitor for Lord Mayor MacCurtain's family requested that no former policeman should serve on the coroner's jury.

The police force of Cork will be increased Monday by large drafts of men from various districts.

Sinn Fein flags are flying over the evacuated constabulary barracks at Shercock, County Cavan. Sinn Fein policemen are in charge there.

DECLARE PEACE.

No further experimentation with treaty ratification should be allowed to defer the declaration of a status of peace. The president and his followers in the senate have defeated the treaty in the only form in which it could be accepted, and the delay at arriving at this lame conclusion has been costly enough. More delay would simply give time for more party tactics and personal politics. America should have peace at once.

To this end Senator Knox has brought up for consideration his joint resolution, which has two objects in view. The first is the declaration of peace with the central powers with the preservation of those interests and rights which would accrue to us through the signing of the peace terms. This is necessary to protect us from legal consequences arising out of action taken under war conditions and to restore the legal status of peace between us and the central powers. The urgent need for this needs no discussion. England, France, and Italy are all engaged in restoring relations profitable to them under peace conditions or creating new ones, and the United States should no longer rest under the disadvantage from which they are free.

The second part of Senator Knox's resolution reaffirms an act approved August, 1916, declaring the policy of the United States in respect of the adjustment of international disputes by mediation or arbitration and authorizing the president to invite the governments of the world to a conference for the establishment of an international court of arbitration and the adoption of a plan for the decrease and limitation of armaments.

Whether this proposal may not properly be broadened so as to provide for a revision of the treaty of Versailles may well be considered by the congress. The deplorable consequences of the Paris conference are by this time apparent. The need for a revision has come to be pretty widely conceded, except, perhaps, at Paris. A new conference, we may hope, would meet in a different atmosphere and should not be dominated either by Mr. Wilson's exaggerated ego, by the exigent necessities of Mr. Lloyd George's campaign tactics, or by M. Clemenceau's destructive imperialism. We do not say a new conference would usher in the millennium. Its task would be seriously complicated by the acts done and the expectations aroused by the Paris conference. But an attempt at revision is essential, it seems to us, to the salvation of Europe, whose civilization is worse threatened at this moment than ever it was by Prussian militarism.

A new conference, desperate as its difficulties would be, is required by still more desperate conditions, and it is not unreasonable to hope that it might substantially mitigate the present hideous situation in Europe.

This would depend, we think, largely upon the character of the American representatives at the conference. If, in spite of Mr. Wilson, we can manage to send men who have knowledge of European history and some grasp of the complicated problems in economics, politics, race, and religion which must be solved in a European adjustment, and if these men know how to use the immense power of the United States to back rational terms, we have reason to hope that a durable peace can be evolved, and, more than that, some practical machinery for the future adjustment of international differences may be devised.

The hour is very dark, but it may precede a day of better things.

AS TO LIBERTY BONDS.

Secretary Houston hails from a region which, if our recollection is correct, did not sprain itself in investing in Liberty bonds. Hence, perhaps, his unwillingness vigorously to tackle the difficult and unpleasant problem of Liberty bonds 10 per cent below par.

Much that he asserts concerning our national extravagance and its effect upon the market in these bonds is true. Nevertheless, we remain convinced that an energetic attempt should be made on sound lines to correct a situation essentially unjust to many small holders of these bonds and essentially discreditable to the national honor. We believe ways may be found, if there is a will to find them, to ameliorate existing conditions in some substantial measure. Congress and the government should earnestly try and not merely ask the bondholders to let things take their natural course. This may be easy for Secretary Houston. It is not easy for the men who at the government's urgency subscribed "till it hurt."

A REAL HELP TO HOUSING.

A decision of vital importance in the all important housing problem is announced from American Federation of Labor headquarters in Washington. It is the agreement that the thirty-six unions now engaged in constructional work will abide by the rulings of a board of jurisdictional award which will prevent cessation of building activities because of disputes between unions as to who will do certain work.

The value of the decision in preventing costly delays in the present urgent task of increasing our housing facilities can be shown briefly but emphatically. Statistics covering a number of years past show that 95 per cent of the number of strikes and 75 per cent of the days of idleness in the building trades have been due to differences between the workmen as to which trade should do certain work. Differences between employers and employés have caused only 5 per cent of the strikes.

With these figures in mind it is apparent that the new decision, applied to the housing problem throughout the country, will eliminate at least 75 per cent of the delay in construction heretofore due to labor troubles. Both the unions and the public are to be congratulated upon an agreement of such value.

The building trades workers, whose occupation at best is seasonal and intermittent, will avoid unnecessary idleness and add materially to their annual income. The contractors will be able to figure more closely on labor costs, cheapening the price of new buildings, because they will not have to charge such a margin for protection against labor difficulties. The public will profit by a swifter return to normal housing facilities.

Also the board of jurisdictional award and the building trades' approval of it are likely to establish an invaluable precedent for settlement of the troubles of other unions.

"BURKING" AND BONDING.

"Burking" was a ghoulish business in human bodies that was devised early in the last century. Professional bonding in Chicago rapidly is becoming its twentieth century counterpart.

Burke was a person who made his living by supplying bodies to the dissecting rooms. His pickings being slender he bethought himself of a forehanded idea. The medical school attendants soon noticed that Burke was delivering to them bodies still warm—life hardly departed. He was hanged after being convicted of murder. He was found to have accelerated his trade by making corpses instead of negotiating for them.

This is the extent to which the professional bond brokerage business is headed in Chicago. Bonds are not furnished on a showing of the prisoner's character. The chances of conviction, the violence of the crime, and the degree of probability that the prisoner will flee have nothing to do with the bondsman's motives in offering surety. He exacts a fee. That is the limit of the bondsman's interest.

Would the most amiable banker go bail in the sum of $100,000 for a known criminal? Absurd. Would the most crafty bondsman go $100,000 bail if there was the slightest chance of forfeiting his $100,000 property or any part of it? Again absurd.

What then induces certain ones to such eagerness to sign criminal bail bonds? The answer appears in the criminal court records. It is because a criminal bail bond isn't worth the paper it is written on. The bondsmen know it. They wouldn't hazard a nickel if it weren't so. The prisoners seeking freedom know it. They wouldn't be paying exorbitant fees to the bond sharks if it weren't so. The public knows it. Hundreds of decent citizens wouldn't be victims of recurrent robberies and murders at the hands of free on bail criminals if it weren't so.

When a fugitive from justice—like "Sonny" Dunn—announces that he proposes to give himself up as soon as he can arrange for bail he isn't looking for sound security. Sound security, capable of being actually confiscated to the state, isn't being offered these days. That fugitive is trying to raise the huge fee which the bond shark must have in hand before he signs the worthless bond.

One asks: Why all this farce? Why not open the jail doors? It is because the forms of the law must be observed; and while observing it the crooks, the bondsmen, and the marketable politicians turn it to organization advantage. The bond system is no more than a legal gesture, a ghastly fiction, out of which the bond brokers take an enormous toll. This toll is at the cost of many murders and robberies.

A professional bondsman will sign bail for any criminal, regardless of his record. He hasn't the remotest idea that the criminal will return for trial. Indeed, he doesn't care. He ventures nothing and receives a fat fee for venturing nothing. The criminal forfeits, and behold, the bond shark's property is found transferred to another.

The evidence of "burking" is bold and unmistakable. Until only recently the bond sharks maintained a veritable board of trade in the Criminal court building. The taxpayers, victims of the crimes that make bonding so profitable, also are the rent payers for the "office space" appropriated to the use of the sharks in a public building.

That the bond sharks hover about the court building is circumstantial evidence of their interest, which may be called accessory, in robbery and murder. Without crime and criminals they could not prosper. With crime they do prosper. The extent of crime in Chicago indicates the degree of that prosperity.

Burke, the ghoul, made his own corpses. How far must law lapse before we shall find the bond evil conspiring at crime, before the fact, so that it may, as it does now, participate after the fact?

Editorial of the Day

CHICAGO MAKES GOOD SHOWING.

[Illinois State Journal.]

Chicago has many sins to answer for. On the other hand, Chicago is possessed of virtues which commend her as an example of what a big American city ought to be.

So much is said and written concerning Chicago's shortcomings that it is good to read of the commendable things she does and a pleasure to comment on them. There is an opportunity to do this in connection with the annual typhoid report compiled by the Journal of the American Medical Association.

This report shows that Chicago is first of all American cities in the fight to stamp out typhoid. It leads New York, Boston, and Cleveland, which follow it in the order named as leaders in the fight on the scourge. Whereas in the 1905-1910 period the typhoid death rate in Chicago was almost 16 to every 100,000 population, it was in 1919 reduced to a fraction over one to each 100,000. To be exact, it was 1.2.

Some idea of the extent of Chicago's victory over typhoid can be had by comparing its rate with that of Memphis, which is 58.4, the highest for the year. Springfield's rate, according to the last official statistics on file with the state health department, was 27.1.

In Chicago the value of the great engineering work of turning sewage away from Lake Michigan is beginning to tell. The drinking water of Chicago today is probably the purest of any large city in the world. In Cleveland results are mostly due to water filtration and liberal use of chloride of lime.

There are some interesting exhibits from other cities. Ten years ago the average typhoid mortality in Columbus, O., per 100,000 was 40. In 1919 it was 3. Louisville, Ky., was 52.7; now 11.2. Pittsburgh was 65, but Pittsburgh has cleaned it down to 6.2. Scranton, Pa., was 31.5, but is now next to Chicago with only 1.3.

One of the best arguments against radicalism is that the downtrodden and oppressed have in the ballot a powerful and proper weapon with which to gain their ends; but this argument is of no worth if elections may be bought. So we may imagine Mr. Newberry saying to himself: "This verdict is unjust, but I bow to it. My only regret is that I have only two years to give to my country."

In the Spring the Schoolmarm's Fancy . . .

[From the Middletown News-Signal.]

The West Elkton school has a love episode that is attracting the attention of the people of the district. It seems as if the teacher of the sixth and seventh grades, a promising young man of near Eaton, became badly smitten by the charms of the primary teacher, a most handsome young woman from near College Corner, and the young man's love was reciprocated measure of measure, if not more so, as it is said girls love more intensely than boys and in this case it seems to be true. They never saw each other until they began teaching at West Elkton last September and it was a case of "love at first sight." They boarded at the same place and this intensified and magnified the matter, but they could not keep it out of the schoolroom. At recess and noon one was in the other's room most of the time and they billed and cooed at every opportunity. Not content with this, they sent notes to each other by the pupils. The principal of the schools placed the matter before the school board, stating that he admonished the teacher lovers, but it did no good. The board of education told him to come down with a heavy hand on them and if that did not stop it they would have both of them on the carpet.

THE CLASSICS.

(John Henry Newman, "Grammar of Assent.")

Let us consider, too, how differently young and old are affected by the words of some classic author, such as Homer or Horace. Passages which to a boy are but rhetorical commonplaces, neither better nor worse than a hundred others which any clever writer might supply, which he gets by heart and thinks very fine, and imitates, as he thinks, successfully, in his own flowing versification, at length come home to him, when long years have passed, and he has had experience of life, and pierce him, as if he had never before known them, with their sad earnestness and vivid exactness. Then he comes to understand how it is that lines, the birth of some chance morning or evening at an Ionian festival, or among the Sabine hills, have lasted generation after generation, for thousands of years, with a power over the mind, and a charm which the current literature of his own day, with all its obvious advantages, is utterly unable to rival. Perhaps this is the reason of the medieval opinion about Virgil, as if a prophet or magician; his single words and phrases, his pathetic half lines, giving utterance, as the voice of Nature herself, to that pain and weariness, yet hope of better things, which is the experience of her children in every time.

THE KID KIDS DON'T LIKE.

NICK is an Italian boy, 12 years of age, living in an Italian neighborhood and speaking nothing but Italian at home. He is of a masterful, dominating type. But when he went to the public schools he could not understand much English and made no progress. Instead of dominating in school as elsewhere he was dominated, ridiculed, punished. Had he been of a more determined type he would have overcome his handicap. Or with his equipment of brains and determination he would have overcome it had he had any help at home, but his old, illiterate, incompetent mother was helpless. The consequence was that Nick was unequal to the demand. Accustomed to dominating, he would not be looked down on. School was his Waterloo, so he became a truant, from which he developed into a street rat.

This story is told by Dr. Jessie Taft in illustrating the work of the Seybert institution with neurotic girls and other children whose behavior makes it difficult for them to get along with other children.

The successful individual, meaning by that the level-headed, wholesome, common sense, happy individual, is one who adjusts himself completely to those about him. At the other end of the scale is the individual whose behavior is so ultra that no adjustment with those around him is possible. These people generally find their way into insane asylums. They number tens of thousands.

Just above the insane group are the neurotics. These are able to make some adjustments, but not enough to bring them happiness. Sometimes they are intelligent enough to yearn for accomplishments, but are not intelligent enough, persistent enough, adaptable enough, or capable enough to overcome their obstacles and accomplish their yearnings.

Sometimes their fault consists in day dreaming or in imaginings. Out of their condition of misfit in any one of a dozen directions they develop a neurosis.

Dr. Frank Wood Williams, in a clever analysis of this group before the American Public Health association, said there were many more of them than there were of the insane.

Coming up in the scale we come to the worriers. All the victims of worry and anxiety are the victims of failure in an attempt to make satisfactory, common sense adjustments. They have a feeling of inadequacy to meet that which they worry about. This is a failure of training with this group, because beyond question they could have been trained out of their moderate degree of inherited weakness.

They feel inadequate because they never have trained themselves to meet the difficulties of life unperturbed. They have allowed themselves to "run away" or to shirk in some one of a dozen ways. Had they faced their troubles from the beginning they would have learned to discriminate between those which they could and should have overcome and those to which they should have adjusted themselves. In that way only can we learn to turn a keen, untroubled face home to the instant need of things.

Also in that way do we train ourselves against worries and anxieties. Should we wonder that the worriers and the anxious are found more frequently among those sheltered as children than among those who have had to fight the battles of life?

All these are questions of behavior. Dr. Taft thinks until our teachers know more about behavioristics our schools will spoil many children. Of course, back of the need of the teachers there lies the great need that the parents know more about behavioristics.

THINKS BABY IS QUEER.

B. B. D. writes: "1. My baby 6 months old has a funny shaped head. It is pressed in from the back and comes out in front. We did not notice it until he was 2 months old. He feels fine all the time. Can anything be done for it?

"2. His bowels moved from seven to eight times a day for more than 2 months. What is the cause of it? I have been giving him soothing sirup and boiled milk but this does not seem to help any."

REPLY.

1. No.

2. He has indigestion. If he is breast fed, stick to breast milk exclusively. If he is bottle fed, give him a weak milk mixture until his diarrhea has stopped. There is no objection to boiled milk if you dilute it enough. There is objection to soothing sirup.

BICYCLE POSSIBLE REMEDY.

B. R. A. writes: "Possibly there is some cure or exercise that will help to straighten slightly crooked limbs of a girl of 16."

REPLY.

Probably not. It is said that riding a bicycle is of some service, if it is a little too high. If you will ride every day you may be helped. If it does your legs no good you have not lost, since bicycle riding is excellent for health and well being.

OTHERS MAY TELL YOU.

K. F. write: "I am a girl of 17 and my parents have not told me one thing about life. Am I old enough to know? I am trying to figure things out, but I can't. Or will you tell me where I can get a book and the price of it? I shall be very grateful."

REPLY.

Ask your mother to tell you what you should know. If she is disinclined, ask your school teacher, or if you are not in school, ask your Sunday school teacher. If you work, perhaps the forewoman can be depended on.

TO AVERT THAT YAWN.

J. S. writes: "What causes gaping or yawning? Worse after supper than other times. Does it come from the nerves, or is it largely a habit that might be controlled by will power, or does it come from the stomach?"

REPLY.

Insufficient supply of oxygen. It can be cured by any one of the following:

1. Eating a light supper.
2. Taking some active exercise.
3. Opening the windows, cooling the air, freshening it, and lowering the temperature.

THE FRIEND OF THE SOLDIER

RADICALS INVADING LEGION.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 21.—Warning that radicals are trying to obtain membership in the American Legion was given tonight by Arthur Woods, chairman of the national Americanism commission.

Woods said he had learned that the Reds are seeking enrollment in the legion in an effort to learn what action the former service men's organization is taking against them and their policies.

"No real harm, however, can be done to the legion by membership of such persons," Woods declared. "It will do the radicals good.

"They will find it impossible to convert to anarchy men of the stuff that characterizes our membership, and they will run grave risk of being converted themselves to a belief in law and order."

MISSING SOLDIER SOUGHT.

Dr. F. B. Broderick of Detroit, state welfare officer of the American Legion of Michigan, is seeking news of George Patrick Darragh, who was discharged from the army on Aug. 20, 1919, at Camp Grant. Nothing has been heard of Darragh since then, and his relatives and friends are worried. Darragh served with the 18th Co., 14th G. D. T. C.; Co. B, 67th S. G. Ry. Tn. Bn.; 11th Co., 16th G. T. C.; Co. B, 1st Ry. Op. Tr., and with the 16th G. division. He served on the Mexican border and in France. He is 40 years old, single, and a locomotive engineer.

GEORGE P. DARRAGH.

NEEDS FOOT APPLIANCE.

Barry, Ill., March 19.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—I received an injury while in the army which made necessary the removal of four toes on my left foot. I am badly in need of some appliances to make walking more comfortable.

Will the government furnish such an appliance free of charge? Just how shall I go about this to get results from the government? H. L. M.

Report your case to the United States public health service, 512 Garland building, Chicago. The government will furnish you with any necessary appliance or medical attention through them.

INSURANCE CONVERSION.

Freeport, Ill., March 17.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—I have been told that you will give information on soldier's insurance. I am still carrying my war policy. How long is it good for, one year? Or is it only one year after discharge? Before we were discharged I asked our commanding officer about it, and he said we would be notified about any changes to be made. I have waited a long time, but nothing has come except premium notices. I am 26, and have been contemplating converting my policy, but don't know how much I'll have to pay. What are the rates at my age? G. L. B.

The war risk insurance must be converted within five years after the termination of the war. The "termination of the war" is interpreted to mean when the president declares peace. The sooner you convert your policy the smaller premium you will have to pay. You probably know that you may reduce this amount to as low as $1,000. At 26 the monthly premium on each thousand dollars of insurance is $1.32 for ordinary life insurance; thirty payment life is $1.56; twenty payment life, $1.95; twenty year endowment, $3.33; thirty year endowment, $2.10; endowment at 62, $1.74. You may convert part or all of it as you see fit, only all of it must be converted into an old line policy mentioned above within the stipulated five years. If you will send your street address we shall be glad to send you the blanks for conversion.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

CITIZEN BORN IN CANADA.

Chicago, March 20.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—My mother and father were born in the United States, but both went to Canada when quite young. I was born in Canada, and I came to the United States with my family in 1892, being then 12 years old.

Am I a Canadian or United States citizen? B. F. R.

The children of persons who are now or have been citizens of the United States shall, though born out of the limits and jurisdiction of the United States, be considered as citizens thereof.—Naturalization laws and regulations.

TAX ON UNPAID FURNITURE.

Chicago, March 20.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—Will you kindly inform me as to whether the county can collect a personal property tax on furniture that is not paid for? The furniture collector claims that the furniture company is obliged to pay tax on the goods until it is paid for. Today we received a personal property tax bill for the year of 1919. We have nothing is that line except the unpaid for furniture. T. Z.

It should be taxed in the name of the person who owns it, which depends on the contract between you and the seller.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

WANTS HELP AT 61.

Chicago, March 20.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I am a man 61 years of age. Wife is dead. I have three sons and one daughter, all married but one son. The daughter lives at Aurora, Ill., and is well to do. I can't find work on account of my age and weight (210), and, of course, I want to live a few years yet. Will you kindly tell me how to make the daughter help me? G. K.

If you are incapacitated apply to the state's attorney of the county in which she resides. You cannot compel her to contribute unless she has property or income in her own right.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

HE SELLS WIFE'S PROPERTY.

Chicago, March 20.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—My husband has signed a contract to sell a piece of property which belongs to me. I am the owner. I wish to know if that binds me to sell? I wish to back out of the deal. The agent has the abstract, which I suppose is gone through. Mrs. M. W.

You probably are not bound, but they could recover damages from your husband if the contract is not carried out.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

As but limited space can be given letters in this department, writers must confine themselves to 200 or 300 words. Unless they give us their full names, and addresses, their letters will not be considered. No manuscript will be returned unless the writer sends postage for that purpose.

THE PRIDE OF SERVICE.

Waukesha, Wis., March 15.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—There is not a ghost of a chance, I hope, of that bonus for ex-service men and women going through. If it does it is without the approval of the majority of self-respecting men and women. Why should a prize be given for doing your plain duty? It is bad enough to have given a flat $80 a month to the temporarily disabled. A very good opportunity to become permanently sick. A fine way to create initiative, ambition, patriotism, in those who have not these qualities. Now here comes what looks like (Chairman Fordney to the contrary) a big piece of political bunko.

I am a woman who enlisted in 1916 and served only seventeen months. A member of the American Legion. Have not a cent in the world except what I earn, but I protest with all that is in me against this monumental piece of graft being perpetrated against Uncle Sam.

Of course, many are out of luck, but a great deal is the way in which you look at it. A boy 20 years old, shot through the arm and chest wall, developed pneumonia, empyema, had three rib resections, returned home with a good sized hole in his side, and is now going through a university, said: "I owe a great deal to Uncle Sam. If I remained home I might have had the flu with the same complications, or perhaps have died, but because I served, Uncle Sam is sending me through school." O, yes, there are a few like the above. For the future of the nation let us be thankful there are.

Please, everybody who served, send in your protest to congress. Why doesn't the American Legion do that? Let us be proud we served and without a string to it. A PATRIOT.

CAUGHT WITH THE GOODS.

HAVANA, Cuba, March 10.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—In your issue of Feb. 1 appears an article, supposedly the conversation between tourists in a hotel at the Isle of Pines.

In your issue of Feb. 17 appears a short editorial to the effect that you notice the Times of Cuba has reprinted this article, changing the name of the hotel. Permit me to call your attention to the fact that this article was originally printed in the Times of Cuba, January issue, and as the source of the article is such that no one other than the editor of the Times of Cuba could possibly have prepared the story, I desire to go on record as uttering a feeble protest, not against the swipe, but against your accusation that the Times of Cuba stole the article from you. Please play fair.

H. Y. ROSS.

TRYING TO STAY DECENT.

Oak Park, Ill., March 18.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Your editorial, "The Oak Park Sign," apparently is a plea for the benefit of Chicago. Surely you should not be reprimanded for that, but the Oak Parkers should and have something to say about this Chicago "land grab."

You claim that the annexation of Oak Park to Chicago is essential to the growth of your city. In other words, annexation would mean the construction of flat and apartment buildings among the finest residences in Oak Park, spoiling the appearance of the entire neighborhood, and causing the present residence owners to sell their property, which would be ruined by the apartment plague.

Oak Park, as it is, offers a home community to all who wish such a place in which to live; but as a part of Chicago this genuine home community would soon become merely a pleasant dream we had last night, and we wake up to find it necessary to seek elsewhere for a quiet, peaceful, homelike community.

We Oak Parkers are not infected with the fear of being murdered or having our homes robbed by Chicago crooks, but the lawmakers and law executioners of Chicago would soon inject these diseased specimens of humanity, with their murdering and thieving habits, into our village were it part of Chicago.

WM. A. MCGUINEAS.

"THOU SHALT NOT."

Chicago, March 16.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—I am not a drinker of alcoholics of any kind, and never have been. I have no taste or desire for alcoholic beverages. I have traveled in "dry" states and can testify to the benefits of prohibition. I have seen much of the evils arising from the drink habit.

As a medicine man I am quite familiar with the action of alcoholics upon the human mind and body. I will add that I believe strong drink is an evil and the cessation of its use as a beverage is desirable.

Notwithstanding all this, I would rather see the nation go back to drunkenness than to retain the prohibition amendment in the constitution. When the constitution becomes an instrument to direct the individual as to what he shall eat, drink or wear it becomes a czar and no better than a czar. Keep the word "verboten" out of the constitution. Let the constitution stand as a guide for the nation, elastic enough to allow liberty of the individual without falling into loose license. N. G.

"A VOICE CRYING IN THE WILDERNESS."

Chicago, March 17.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Does the average American person stop to realize what is becoming of our girls? Just think how many girls and young women there are now who think that loads of powder and rouge make them look beautiful. They are in reality not made beautiful, but they actually look like freaks. Don't you girls think that a man, woman, or child can tell when this artificial coloring is used? Can't they distinguish a natural beauty from a madeup beauty? Indeed, they can. Yes, there is a saying that women have a right to make themselves beautiful. You can surely do it without going to the drug store. I know that if more of these girls would be out in the open air, instead of dancing in a stuffy dance hall, or movie show, three times a week they would soon find that Nature takes care of the coloring and not the drug store man. Rouge tends to make your face ugly in later years, but a girl, man, or child never regrets getting too much air. GRACE BERNSTEIN.

THE INCONSIDERATE AUTOIST.

Chicago, March 17.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Why is it that the automobile laws can be defiantly violated from day to day? Hundreds of machines are running around without 1920 licenses and scores without any licenses.

Is this fair to the autoist who pays his license promptly?

Whenever there is a holdup or murder the perpetrator always got away in a car without a license number. If all cars were required to live up to the law the absence of a license number on a machine ought to be prima facie evidence of the driver being an outlaw.

'SUSIE'S EYES, OR WAKING UP PAPA,' BY DR. ROBERTSON

Being a Sugar Coated Drama for the Home.

Dr. John Dill Robertson, the w. k. head of the city's health department, took pen in hand yesterday and dashed off a great moral drama in three acts entitled "Susie's Eyes." With certain deletions, which it is to be hoped do no injury to the Robertsonian style, the piece is as follows:

ACT I.

Scene: Breakfast room in the family of the Blanks. Mr. Blank is getting ready to leave for business.

WIFE: O, John! Just a moment.

HUSBAND: Well, what is it? I'm in a hurry.

WIFE: Here's a note from the school doctor about Susie's eyes.

HUSBAND: What's the matter with Susie's eyes?

WIFE: She is getting a horrible squint.

HUSBAND: I can't see that there's any great rush about this. We can attend to it a little bit later.

ACT II.

Scene 1: Same. Following morning.

WIFE: John, that clock has stopped again. Can't you leave it at the repair shop.

HUSBAND: Why, certainly.

Scene 2: Blank dining room. One day later. Time: Evening.

WIFE: The jeweler delivered the clock this afternoon and it's running splendidly.

HUSBAND: Yes, I told the jeweler we wanted a hurry up job on it, and am glad to know that he made good.

WIFE: John. You remember the note that we got the other day from the school doctor about Susie's eyes?

HUSBAND: I can't understand this craving for interest in the affairs of my family.

WIFE: I forgot to tell you, John, that the school nurse called today. I promised her we would ask Dr. Jones to call this evening.

HUSBAND: O, well! Since you've taken the matter into your own hands, I have nothing more to say.

ACT III.

Scene: One week later. Dining room of the Blanks. Family at the evening meal.

HUSBAND: Well, Susie, how are the new glasses?

SUSIE: They're just fine, papa. I can see splendid. An' I don't never have the headache any more like I did. Teacher was glad, too. She said I should have had them a year ago. I got better marks on all my lessons, too.

HUSBAND: I can see now that this is good work well done. And if that school doctor sends Susie home with any more notes, we'll get busy right away.

Stelk Asks Police War on Auto Permit Slackers

Judge John Stelk, president of the Chicago Motor Safety league, asked Chief Garrity in a letter yesterday to set aside a day on which the police can give special attention to motorists who have been "slackers" in applying for automobile licenses. The letter says numerous complaints have been received by the league. A fine of $5 and costs is recommended for those who have been negligent.

CROWDS IN VAIN TRY TO IDENTIFY GIRL FOUND DEAD

Beach Mystery Bares New Disappearances.

All day yesterday relatives and friends of girls who have disappeared within the last three months visited the undertaking rooms at 859 North Clark street and viewed the body of the young woman recovered from the sands of the Oak street bathing beach on Saturday. Up to last night no one had identified the victim.

Despite the declaration of Mrs. Gertrude Howe Britton that the body is not that of Jeanne Anna de Kay, missing protégé of Miss Jane Addams, H. P. Chesley, an uncle of the lost heiress, went to the morgue and glanced at the body.

"That is not Jeanne," he said as he hurried away.

It was thought the body might be that of Miss Clara McCausey, who disappeared from her home in Zion City on New Year's day, but a friend of the girl failed to identify it.

Milwaukee Disappearance.

Another visitor was George Besch of 1312 Vliet street, Milwaukee, who happened to be in Chicago when he read of the finding of the body. He thought it might be that of his sister, Miss Tillie Besch, who left Appleton, Wis., on Feb. 23, in company with another woman, presumably to come to Chicago. She has not been heard from since.

After failing to identify the body, Besch went to the detective bureau and reported the disappearance of his sister.

"She is 32 years old," he said. "We have searched Milwaukee and other parts of Wisconsin without finding a clew to her whereabouts."

May Be Sheboygan Girl.

A long distance call from Sheboygan, Wis., between John Gressen of Sheboygan and the detective bureau may solve the mystery.

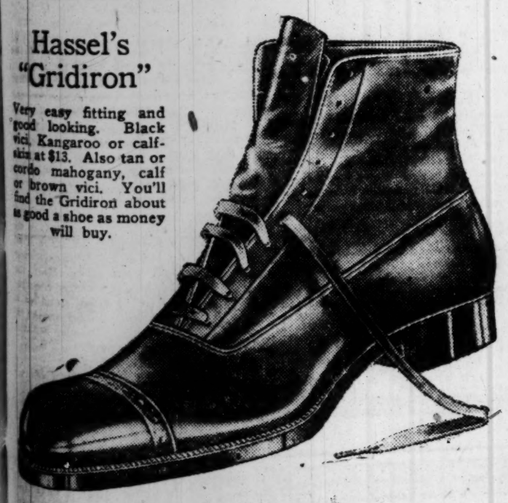

Mr. Gressen said his daughter disappeared a month ago and from the descriptions he thought the lake victime may be his daughter. He said he would be present at the inquest today.

Cicero Girl of 12 Attacked; Police Refuse Details

A man named Marack, who said he lived at 1345 South Sixty-first avenue, Cicero, said last night that his 12 year old daughter had been attacked by a man at Sixty-first avenue and Fourteenth street. The Cicero police said they were working on the case, but refused to give any information.

FEAR NEW COAL STRIKE AS WAGE CONTRACTS END

Wilson's Conference Plan Said to Violate Law.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 21.—[Special.]—Just as the government has finished its work in preparation for swooping down on more than a hundred operators and miners of the central competitive district this week, charged with a nation-wide coal conspiracy in violation of the Lever act, comes the alarming report from the Mine Workers' headquarters and from officers of the operators that the door has been thrown open for another tie-up of the bituminous coal fields which may prove more paralyzing to the industrial world than the strike of last fall.

It was pointed out here tonight by mine leaders that the present contract in force between the operators and miners expires March 31 and that unless a new contract is arranged before that time the nation will face a general shutdown then.

Experience Shows Peril.

Experience shows that without a contract in force the miners will not return to work.

President Wilson's plan of having the operators and miners work out their contracts for the new coal year beginning April 1 is said to be in direct contrast with the basis upon which many of the indictments of the 125 operators and miners named were drawn, and that such a conference would be another violation of the Lever act providing the present indictments bring about convictions.

Information among the operators and workers' officials is that the prosecution is proceeding upon the hypothesis that all joint conferences to negotiate wage contracts have been and are illegal since the passage of the Lever act, Aug. 10, 1917.

Operators in a Pinch.

All of this, operators point out, sizes up the pinch in which they find themselves in spite of President Wilson's request to get together on the majority report of the coal strike commission which in itself gives presidential sanction to the collective bargaining principle.

The new developments have not hindred the preparations of the prosecution.

STATE MINERS' BODY ASSAILED BY SOCIALIST

Peoria, Ill., March 21.—"Biological throwbacks, herdsmen, and collie dogs" were some of the names applied to the officials of the state miners' organization at an "outlaw" meeting held this afternoon, when Sam J. French, miner and Peoria Socialist Labor party leader, addressed the delegates.

French, who is not a delegate to the convention, sought recognition on the convention floor last Thursday, but was not recognized by President Farrington.

Plans to force French's recognition were made at the meeting. French is seeking to defend the Socialist Labor party, which some of the conservative delegates last week said was behind the "wildcat" strike of last August.

French pleaded for common ownership of mines and declared that if every person in the United States between the ages of 21 and 45 were put at a useful occupation a 300 hour working year would suffice to produce all the goods needed in this country.

Final action on the "wildcat" strike is expected on the convention floor tomorrow.

Three Injured When Autos Collide on North Side

Three persons were injured and four shaken up yesterday when two automobiles collided at Addison street and Pine Grove avenue.

Albert Kirsch, 1941 Wolfram street, escaped with cuts and bruises. Robert Fitzgerald suffered a concussion of the brain and cuts and bruises. William Kirsch, 1519 Grace street, was bruised. Thomas Martin, 1820 Hudson avenue, sustained scalp wounds and cuts and bruises.

CHAMBLISS TO GIVE UP TODAY, LAWYER ASSERTS

Dorsey Chambliss, former Negro postman, whom the grand jury indicted last week for his alleged betrayal of 16 year old Bertha Wiebeck, will give himself up today, according to his lawyer, F. L. Barnett.

Deputy sheriffs have been searching for Chambliss and Emma Ross, who ... resort in which it is said ... was confined, ever since Friday. An indictment has also been returned against the Ross woman.

"Why are Chambliss and Mrs. Ross hiding?" Attorney Barnett was asked. "Why wait until Monday before giving themselves up?"

"O, they didn't feel like staying in jail over Sunday," he replied.

He said no money has been raised to meet the bonds, which in the case of Chambliss are set at $50,000. He further asserted the state "has no case" against the accused Negroes and "will try to stall off" the time of trial.

Considerable acrimony has been evident in regard to the whole affair. Attorney Barnett said he wouldn't do anything to help the state locate the indicted pair, as the prosecutor's office had "done enough phoney work already."

Thomas T. Freeman, chief deputy in charge of the north side branch of the sheriff's office, intimated city hall politicians had been responsible for the disappearance of Chambliss and the Ross woman. This was denied.

CANTEEN GIRLS TO BID OWN PARTNERS TO LEAP YEAR FETE

MISS KATHERINE PARKHURST.

The Canteeners, an organization of canteen girls, who served at the Khaki and Blue club during the war, have arranged to hold a leap year frolic at the Palmer house on the night of Friday, March 26, for the benefit of the wounded soldiers at Fort Sheridan hospital.

Tickets are being sold only to girls and women who promise to ask and bring men to the affair of their own accord—a real leap year stunt.

The Misses Grace McCormick, Katherine Parkhurst, and Marie Klamsteiner are on the arrangement committee. Miss McCormick is president of the Canteeners and Miss Phyllis Plummer is secertary. The following will act as patronesses: Mesdames George W. Plummer, Sumner Sollitt, John Harvey, Benjamin Buckholz, and Max Halliday.

FOUND DEAD IN HOTEL.

Len Sibler, 50 years old, was found dead in his room in the Hudson hotel, 435 South Clark street, by a clerk in the hotel yesterday. The clerk had gone to awaken him. The cause of his death has not been determined.

VINDICATION IS CERTAIN, SAYS NEWBERRY AID

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 21.—[Special.]—Paul H. King, Newberry campaign manager and one of the three defendants upon whom was imposed the maximum penalty provided for violation of the federal corrupt practices act, Sunday night issued a statement in which he characterized the outcome of the notable trial just concluded as an indication of the "power of the administration with all the agencies of the government at its command."

Most of the defendants and attorney with their wives left Grand Rapids Saturday. Others are leaving today.

The former executive chairman of the Newberry senatorial committee will be unable to return home until later in the week. He is just recovering from the nervous breakdown that came less than two week ago, while he was on the witness stand.

Mr. King's statement follows:

"While greatly surprised, I am not at all dismayed by the result of the trial. It simply indicates the power of the administration with all of the agencies of the government at its command, backed up by great influence and vast wealth.

"There is, thank God, another day and another court in which justice will ultimately be done and this monstrous thing made right.

"In the meantime let no member of our party be disturbed. There is nothing personal in this situation. It is a fight for principle in which the individual is entirely submerged. It is a long struggle and a hard one, but the right of Michigan Republicans to select their own candidate in their own primary without presidential interference and the right of Michigan voters free to choose their own United States senator will eventually be vindicated.

"With that will come the personal vindication of each of the men who already have sacrificed much, but who are willing to sacrifice more if need be.

"There was not a single act of corruption in the senatorial campaign and the final result will demonstrate beyond the shade of a doubt that this was the cleanest campaign ever conducted and not a criminal conspiracy."

AGED MAN LOST SIX DAYS FOUND DEAD IN FIELD

The body of an old man was found in onion fields near the Budlong woods yesterday morning. Later in the day it was identified as that of Carl Utroska, 76 years old, of 2037 Montrose avenue, who was last seen at his home Monday evening.

Utreska set out for the home of his married daughter, Mrs. Anna Uhen of 1414 Montrose avenue, on that night. It is believed he got on a Lincoln avenue car and rode in the wrong direction, that he got off at the end of the line and started to walk back.

He must have strayed into the woods, the prairies, and the onion patch, the police say, and wandered around in the dark until he fell exhausted.

When he fell he struck his head upon on old onion crate and there he lay and died, probably of exposure. His head was still on the crate when he was found.

CHURCHES UNITE TO AMERICANIZE THE IMMIGRANT

Washington, D. C., March 21.—[Special.]—Robert Lansing, former secretary of state, has accepted the honorary chairmanship of the national interchurch board, which has effected an alliance of more than a score of church denominational organizations to fight the "red" menace.

Former Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane, Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, and Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson have joined with Mr. Lansing in commending the plans.

Interchurch officials say a prime need is the establishment of training schools. Surveys found much of so-called anarchistic evil is due to the immigrants clinging to their old world prejudices.

Practices under which immigrants are herded at foreign ports and are brought to America to be "dumped" in foreign speaking colonies are deplored. The churches take a sharp rap at certain commercial agencies, directing movements of foreigners coming to America and closer government supervision of departures from foreign ports for America, through American consulates, is advised.

"SAVE ON MEAT," WEEK'S SLOGAN IN H. C. L. FIGHT

This is Save-Money-on-Meat-Week.

"This week has been set aside by the department of justice to introduce consumers to less costly beef, so that they may use parts of the carcass hitherto neglected and hereafter vary their diet and lower their bills," says Maj. A. A. Sprague.

"The public ought to know about short ribs, for instance. Short ribs sell in Chicago now for 15 or 20 cents. Prime ribs sell around 33 cents. It isn't the saving there alone that counts so much but that the odd parts of the carcass can be used just as successfully on a dinner table.

"Short ribs come from the same animal and almost the same part of the animal as the prime ribs. Yet customers in Chicago markets take the prime ribs home after paying higher prices. This department is not advising the public to eat nothing but short ribs, but we do want the people to learn that some of the inexpensive cuts are just as palatable.

"Husbands downtown for lunch eat the inexpensive cuts at cafés and restaurants, yet they go home at night and expect the more expensive parts of the steer. Why don't more housewives learn the inexpensive cuts can be made just as tasty?"

Several little rules have been laid down by Maj. Sprague for the week's crusade against high prices. Some of them are:

"Buy the neglected cuts."

"Eat chuck steaks and New England boiled dinners today, and tomorrow you will find the sirloins cheaper."

"Buy short ribs."

"The stockman produces whole steers for us. We must eat the whole thing."

Camera Gives a Record of Wilson Spring Smile

Washington, D. C., March 21.—President Wilson posed for more than five minutes for moving picture men today as he was leaving the White House for an automobile ride. The pictures showed him somewhat thinner than before his illness.

Taking advantage of the first balmy spring day of the year, the president, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and Rear Admiral Grayson, motored through the city's parks and nearby Maryland for about two hours.

LAWYER OFFERS NEW SCHEME TO END BOND EVILS

I. Karl Davidson, of the law firm of Taylor and Miller, Corn Exchange Bank building, called upon State's Attorney Hoyne yesterday to lend his influence to an effort to correct the criminal and civil bond evil which makes possible the escape from justice of such characters as Fred Buckminster, confidence man de luxe, and "Slippery Sonny" Dunn.

If the prosecutor approves, an effort will be made to induce the city and state bar associations to sponsor the Davidson plan, after such alterations are made as in the judgment of all concerned will contribute to its efficiency.

Bond Bureau Proposed.

As tentatively outlined the program involves an act of the legislature covering the principles of the former Barrett law, which made bonds a lien against the property scheduled to secure them, and the creation of a bureau where a check may be made against the value of the property and its title.

"At this time, when courts, grand juries, newspapers, and the public generally are condemning the system whereby prisoners are freed and permitted to escape by furnishing straw bonds in the courts," said Mr. Davidson, "the following seems a simple method of preventing such escapes and losses by the county and city in bond forfeitures, which, under our present chaotic conditions, are unrecoverable."

The plan would include a state act providing for the establishment of a bond approval office, where all bonds would be submitted, in duplicate and accompanied by title papers, before approval by the court.

Plan Lien on Property.

The office would compare the valuation stated in the bond application with that fixed by the assessor, and an investigation of title would be made. The bond would then be recorded, to become a lien on the property from the time of the recording, the clerk of the court to issue releases of bonds upon the final disposition of the case in which bond was given.

Mr. Davidson believes a small fee could be charged in civil cases, which, with the bond forfeitures, would pay for the expenses of the office. The office could be used by all the courts.

In smaller counties the same results could be achieved, at less expense, he says, by appointing the assessor or recorder as the bond approval officer.

LEONARD WOOD
For President

This is one time your vote means something

NO primary in the history of Illinois has meant more to all the people of the United States than the Presidential Preference Primary this year, Tuesday, April 13.

The names of two men are before you, and you are asked to make your choice between them — which of them you think should be President of the United States.

YOU are asked to do this, not by your vote for delegates, but by recording your judgment so that the country may know what you think. Stripped of all else, this is the meaning of the Illinois Primary this time, so far as the country is concerned.

Now stop and think what manner of man should have your voice in such a time as this —perhaps the most trying time in our history —the world seething with unrest, suspicion, bitterness—a time of danger. Is it not true that we need a man in whose steadiness of purpose, in whose steadfastness of mind, and in whose courage we can trust?

Do we want a politician merely — a man of compromise — or do we want a man as much like Lincoln and Roosevelt as we can get? A man fearless and honest; a man whose character stands out as a strong, earnest, understandable American. A man who has done things. A man who is unafraid. A man who knows what he wants to do and then does it.

If you agree with this — then you will give your voice and vote for Leonard Wood because you know what kind of man he is and what he has done. He is more than a soldier — he is an executive; an administrator; an organizer and a statesman. He has proved his constructive ability. As Governor-General of Cuba and later in the Philippines, he directed the acts of hundreds of thousands of human beings, made them happy and orderly, built model schools, established new hospitals, abolished profiteering, developed industry, rehabilitated agriculture, established justice in the courts, and out of chaos developed in a few years one of the contented, prosperous nations of the world. No less a man could have done these things.

There are other good men and true, but there's no other man before the people who measures up to the need of the time as does Leonard Wood. He is a Republican. He is a man of the people and for the people—all the people.

This is once, at least, that your voice at the primary will be heeded. This is one time your vote means something. Do not be misled; do not be afraid to speak your mind.

TAYLOR TELLS OF WORK TO AID RACE RELATIONS

Reveals Progress Since July Riots.

"The Negro problem in Chicago can never be solved by resort to violence, bloodshed, or the fostering of racial animosity. Only by the exercise of forbearance and tolerance and the earnest, dispassionate study of actual conditions and the causes of friction between the two races can we attain the result which we have set out to accomplish." This is what Graham R. Taylor, executive secretary of the Chicago commission on race relations, told the citizens of Hyde Park yesterday afternoon at a meeting in the Hyde Park Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Taylor's purpose was to tell of the work which is being done by the commission, which was appointed by Gov. Lowden after the riots of last July, and to outline the methods by which this work is being carried on.

Commission's Personnel.

The commission is composed of twelve representative men, six from each race. There are six committees, each working on one of the following subjects: Racial clashes; housing conditions of Negroes; industries employing Negroes; crime and police administration (to study types of lawlessness in white and Negro groups); the study of racial contact in schools, parks, and other public places, and the study of public opinion with the object of checking the publication of misleading information and inflammatory language in both the white and Negro press.

"It is estimated that Chicago's Negro population has increased during the last few years from 50,000 to 125,000," Mr. Taylor said. "During the war we needed them for work and they came. Now it is up to us to face the problem that their presence in increased numbers in our city presents.

Would Aid Improvement.

"There is a consciousness among the Negroes that they have the same inalienable rights as the whites in the community. We should recognize and admire their desire to better themselves and should assist and encourage them. Taking the law into our own hands will accomplish the exact opposite of what we are trying to accomplish. We should and must work this out in a spirit of 'malice toward none and charity toward all.'"

State Senator Morton D. Hull, who was present at the meeting, said: "However we feel toward our neighbors, black or white, we will not tolerate violence in this or any other community."

Among the men on the commission are Julius Rosenwald, former Judge Edward Osgood Brown, Victor Lawson, Edward H. Morris, and William Scott Bond.

Mrs. George Murray will chaperon a large group for the Patriotic Women's league in the stirring war day scenes; Miss Emily Severin will lead the American Beauty girls, and Mrs. Raymond L. Clissold the "wedding party" group. Forty De Paul students will take part.

BULLETS FLY AS 'BIG BLACK VAMP' AND WIFE MEET

"Hey, you big, black vamp—I want to see you."

It was Mrs. Bessie Owsley, wife of John, inviting Miss Josephine Wright for a little chat. Both women are colored, and the incident occurred last evening in the Asia chop suey restaurant at 3535 South State street.

"You been meeting my husband and writing him mushy letters," Mrs. Owsley continued.

Then she took her revolver and put two bullets in the wall and another in the fleshy part of Miss Wright's right arm. And, not pausing for any repartee, she went her way.

Hepplewhite

In further continuance of its "Period Furniture" Series, of which this is Number Four, the John M. Smyth store expresses its gratification at the interest the series has created.

Hepplewhite was a Furniture Designer of the early Eighteenth Century who gained his greatest prominence about 1789. The quick popularity of furniture of new design inspired the artists of the day to an intense effort that was destined to attach their names to Furnishings of their design for all time.

Hepplewhite published a book of Furniture designs that revealed that he had a "hobby" for Chairs and the oval or shield shape backs of his chairs were in much favor. It is said that his chairs were mainly for the "parlour" or the room for receiving company. He created a "Duchess" chair which was the arrangement of the two Arm-chairs facing each other in one piece. All of his creations show the sweeping lines with the unbroken aspect as between the back, arm and leg. He used mahogany mainly and chair seats were made of horse hair, covered with leather or fabric. He used inlays, carving, painting and japanning. He made secretary-bookcases, secretaries, bureau-bookcases, toilet tables, washstands, chests, shaving stands, side tables, wall mirrors and other pieces, giving to all of them distinctly decorative features.

New visitors to our Store find our exposition of Home Furnishings one of Chicago's real attractions and quickly learn that the Quality we are giving for the Price we ask makes buying their Home Furnishings here a real economy.

MAROON QUINTET BATTLES PENN IN BIG GAME TONIGHT

Maroon-Penn Lineup

Chicago.		Penn.
Vollmer	R. F.	Rossnast
Bickhoff	L. F.	Sweeney
Halladay	C.	Yates
Hinkle [capt.]	R. G.	Peck [capt.]
Crisler	L. G.	McNichols

Referee—Birch, Earlham. Umpire—Young, Illinois Wesleyan.

The University of Chicago and University of Pennsylvania will meet tonight at Bartlett gym in the first game of the series to decide what is virtually the national intercollegiate basketball championship. Every reserved seat has been sold, but there will be 1,800 general admission seats in the new bleachers built on the running track. These will go on sale at 5 p. m. today.

As a curtain raiser Wingate and Crawfordsville, both of Indiana, will meet in the final of the Maroon interscholastic basket tourney, winding up the four day meet in which prep teams from ten states competed.

Meet After 12 Years.

It will not be the first meeting of Penn and the Maroons. In 1908, when Pat Page, the Chicago coach, played guard, the Maroons won twice from Penn, 21 to 18 and 16 to 15, for the national championship. The game tonight will mark the farewell appearance of Page as a coach on the Midway, for next week he assumes control of athletics at Butler university, Indianapolis.

Both teams represent the class of their districts. Chicago won the Big Ten conference title by landing ten of twelve games, while Penn won all of its games in the eastern league.

Hinkle Back in Lineup.

Much of the hope of Chicago is based on the belief that Capt. Paul Hinkle, who was out of the final game with Wisconsin because of flu, will be able to put up his usual game that has three times made him an all-conference guard. He has had only two days' practice, but the Midway believes that its swarthy leader will be in form.

Tomorrow the teams go east for a second game at Philadelphia Wednesday, and a third game, if necessary, will be played on a neutral floor Saturday, either as Princeton or Columbia.

OLYMPIA BEATS PALMER PARK IN SOCCER CUP TILT

In one of the best soccer games seen around Chicago in some years, Olympia defeated Palmer Park, 3 to 1, in their replayed National Cup match at Bricklayers park, yesterday. It was nip and tuck all the way and when the regular ninety minute period ended the score was even. As in last Sunday's game, an extra half hour had to be played.

Neither team was able to dent the scoring column in the first fifteen minutes of the overtime period, but the Palmers weakened in the last chapter and Aulicky and Trojanek both netted the ball for the winning markers.

Next Sunday the winning eleven will clash with the Bricklayers to decide which team will represent the Illinois district in the fifth round. Lineup:

CUBS TO START FLAG RACE WITH LINEUP OF 1919

BY I. E. SANBORN.

Pasadena, Cal., March 21.—Contrasting their experiences this spring with those of previous training trips to the Pacific coast, Chicago's Cubs have been uncommonly fortunate in the matter of weather, consequently are farther advanced than ever before at the end of a similar stay in California.

Being a team composed largely of veterans, this is a prime factor from a spring training standpoint, because the getaway means so much more to the athlete around 30 than to younger players.

In spite of the fact that Manager Mitchell brought a promising squad of rookies to the coast, there has been no indication as yet that any of them will be able to displace from the lineup any of the men who finished the season of 1918 on the job regularly.

Barber for Paskert's Place.

It looks as if Turner Barber would permanently crowd Dode Paskert out of the outfield, but that change was in process last summer. Barber apparently is confident of his ability to stick in the garden regularly, judging by the fact he was the last of the players to sign his 1920 contract, and it is not believed that fact will handicap him any with the boss of the outfit.

Dave Robertson and Max Flack are practically cinches for the other outfield berths, but they probably will change places during the big race, with Dave in right field and Max in center. That is the arrangement Mitchell has been trying out, and he has seen no reason for changing his plans.

Hollocher May Not Start.

On the infield it looks as if the Cubs would start the pennant race with their lineup of last September, with the possible exception of Hollocher at short. This sensational youngster of the last two campaigns underwent an operation early this month to remove a growth from one of the tendons in his left hand. The trouble started last fall and made it painful for the shortstop to catch a thrown ball or grip a bat, but he stuck it out to the finish.

During the winter the thing apparently disappeared, but as soon as he began practice this spring the pain returned, although Hollocher tried wearing a thick sponge in his mitt. After expert examination the player was advised to have the growth cut out, with the promise that, barring infection, the wound would heal in time to let Hollocher start the championship season.

Two Collegian Understudies.

Mitchell has two lively youngsters grooming themselves for the place if necessary. They are Barney Friberg, a schoolboy find from New England, and Walter Pearce, the Pennsylvania star, whose baseball ambitions got him in trouble with the football folks last fall. Friberg was tried out in the outfield last fall, but Mitchell thinks him a better infielder. In his amateur days Friberg was an all round athlete, and so was Pearce.

The other infield jobs will be held by veterans. Merkle on first has only King Lear and Heine Groh to compete with, which indicates Mitchell's confidence in his ability to make good for at least another year. Herzog at second and Deal at short are fixtures, barring accidents.

The kids who are trying for a sub outfielder's job are William Mariot, Joe Letter, and Clarence Twombly. The last named was taken on as an infielder, but has shown excellent speed in the outer works in practice.

Fine Backstop Staff.

William Killefer will continue to do the bulk of the catching if fortune smiles on the Cubs, and will have the same assistants as last year in Bob O'Farrell and Tom Daly, with William Fischer as a contender for one of the subpen jobs.

It looks now like Alexander, Vaughn, Tyler, and Hendrix for the regular pitching quartet. There is nothing to indicate that either Alex or Hippo is anywhere near the slipping stage. Hendrix has another year of grace for his spitball, but has been learning to curve them over as a precautionary move. Tyler promises now to regain the form lost last season because of a pain in his shoulder.

Back of that first line of slabmen is a strong reserve force in Speed Martin, Nick Carter, and Link Bailey, all of whom showed much improvement last season. As possibilists Mitchell has a young pair of southpaws in Rudolph Weber and Martin Stolz and two right handers in Ted Turner and Earl Hanson. None of them has been under fire sufficiently to determine his real worth as yet.

Stronger Than in 1919.

The Cubs will not be any weaker than they were last year unless they encounter a lot of bad luck in the matter of accidents and the addition of Herzog and Robertson made them a formidable team in the closing weeks of the 1919 pennant chase—too late to cop better than third money. They ought to be stronger by considerable with the added experience given the younger men, even if only one or two of the recruits turns out to be of major league timber.

SPORT BRIEFS

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, who, with his manager, Jack Kearns, was released on bail after they had pleaded not guilty in the federal court here to charges of conspiracy to evade the selective draft act, left for Los Angeles. Kearns remained here. Both are scheduled to appear on April 3 for preliminary hearing.

* *

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—Duffy Lewis, outfielder, from California, has arrived in the Yankee camp. His arm had given him a great deal of trouble and it is doubtful if he will be in the Yankee lineup on opening day. He has not signed. The Yanks are all here but Bill Piercy, another Pacific coaster. Piercy is a holdout and says it is not worth while to leave California for the figure the Yankees have offered him.

* *

NEW YORK.—Willie Meehan, San Francisco heavyweight, has been signed by Dave MacKay of the Sportsmen's club of Newark, N. J., to meet Al Roberts in the feature eight round bout at the next show of the club, April 5.

* *

IN ANTICIPATION of a big semi-pro season, Manager Bill Neisen of the Pyott team, formerly the Gunthers, has announced plans for increasing the seating capacity of Pyott field. Additions to the grandstand will provide 3,000 more seats. Neisen has already signed Butcher, Benz, Driscoll, Baichley, Kilby, Kerins, and La Ross.

BUNGLES IN FIELDING TOSS OFF SOX GAME TO FORT WORTH, 5-2

Fort Worth, Tex., March 21.—[Special.]—The White Sox ran into some real pitching today and gummed up some fielding chances themselves, with the result that the Fort Worth Texas league club, piloted by Jake Atz, trimmed them 5 to 2. Buck Weaver's errors assisted in this sad conclusion, while a two base muff by Nemo Leibold was not without its effect.

Weaver showed his lack of practice when he started the enemy on its merry way in the third inning by muffing an easy grounder from Moore. A sacrifice, Stow's single, and Cooper's triple helped Fort Worth to a pair of runs. Wilkinson was hurling at the time. He toiled four rounds.

Fort Worth gained a run off George Payne in the fifth, when Leibold made a fumble good for a pair of bases and Williams followed with a single. Weaver helped kick away two more in the eighth. He made a bad throw of Nolke's grounder. Score:

Notes of the White Sox

Fort Worth, Tex., March 21.—Manager Bill Gleason was not in uniform which took away considerable interest from the game. He was going to remain in Dallas to watch the Giants and Red Sox, but somebody forgot to fetch the baseballs, so he toted them over on a later car.

Joe Jackson made the star fielding play of the game when he backed to the fence and caught Hoffman's long fly with one hand. Joe is a big favorite down this way.

Felsch continued to hit the ball hard. His contribution consisted of a double and a single. When he had a chance to drive in a run in the fourth he started a double play.

Mike Murphy took seven chances at second base without a slip. Two of his assists were slow grounders which he handled with skill.

In the Wake of the News

PREP SPORTS.

THAT old saying about there being nothing new under the sun may be true enough, but it doesn't go in the world of sports. Behold some sidelights of the University of Chicago prep baseball tourney, as follows:

Members of the Stivers High team of Dayton, O., wore lingerie clasps on the shoulders of their jerseys. The girls of the school gave them to the boy athletes for good luck.

In one game the Stivers boys called for time and the coach rushed out with smelling salts. They were behind in the score, so the lads knelt in a circle, clasped hands, bowed their heads, and prayed. They won the game.

A number of gents with a desire to bet accompanied one team. During an intermission in a game in which Pat Page was officiating one of the embryo gamblers dashed onto the floor, offered Page a bottle, and requested, "Have a shot."

Clendenin, W. Va., High was eliminated by a lopsided score of 45 to 5. After the game the captain of the losing five said, "I missed my first basket and that threw us off our stride."

Whenever a long basket was scored Pat Page would mark the spot, the distance would be measured, and Pat would solemnly announce the toss had broken the gym record. Coach or manager of the team making the shot would immediately dash to telegraph office to inform the folks back home of the record breaking feat. Pat is quite a kidder.

Extra! Extra!

Mount Vernon, Ill., March 20.—Mount Vernon High school won the state championship basketball tournament at Urbana today. All the fireworks in town were sold by 10 o'clock tonight and the town is wild. The victorious team will be met at the depot tomorrow by a brass band and thousands of citizens. Local papers issued extras telling of victory.

Speaking of chasers recalls the remark of a scribe who was crossing Tampa bay during one of the training sojourns of the Cubs in that country. The scribe happened to be one of those rare birds who enjoyed his hootch in quantities. A proud native remarked to him:

"Isn't this a wonderful bay?"

"Yes, think what a lot of chasers it would make," replied the scribe who had no eye for scenery.

CUBS KEPT IDLE BY DOWNPOUR ON COAST; SORE WINGS MENDING

Pasadena, Cal., March 21.—[Special.]—Rain is playing havoc with the plans of the Cubs. It forced them to cancel today's game with the Angels. This afternoon the Seattle manager wired from Hanford that it had poured there and he called off tomorrow's battle.

Mitchell will hold two drills here tomorrow and will lead his squad to Hanford at night for two games with Seattle on Tuesday and Wednesday. The following will make the trip:

Lear, Herzog, Friberg, Pearce, Deal, Robertson, Barber, Weber, Paskert, Twombly, O'Farrell, Daily, Vaughn, Carter, Martin, Hendrix, Hansen, Bailey, and Newkirk.

Merkle's arm is still sore, but he and Flack will be back in the game Thursday. Hollocher's hand has almost lost all its soreness and he is now ready for batting practice.

Hooper's Hits Feature as Red Sox Beat Giants, 4-3

Dallas, Tex., March 21.—The Giants sustained their first defeat of the season today, dropping the second game of their spring series with the Red Sox, 4 to 3. The hitting of Harry Hooper was the most potent factor in the Red Sox offensive. Fred Toney hurled five innings for the Giants and Jess Barnes finished. Waite Hoyt and Herb Pennock did the pitching for Boston. Hoyt was in splendid form.

QUESTIONS THEY ASK.

CHICAGO.—To the Editor.—1. Where can I get the fishing laws of Indiana? 2. Does a boy under 16 need a permit to fish in Indiana? 3. What do you consider the best artificial bait for bass? 4. What is the best plug or wobbler for bass? C. S.

Answers—1. Write department of conservation, division of fish and game, statehouse, Indianapolis. 2. A nonresident license is not required by any one under 18. 3. Pretty hard to say; guess if we were to be limited to one it would be the red, weedless fly, No. 3 spinner, and pork strip combination. 4. Depends on conditions and the locality; impossible to answer this more definitely.

* *

Answer—That was the subject of our article last Thursday. Briefly, to three parts of boiled water add two parts of formalin. Or make a saturate—all the water will take up—solution of boric acid and put the minnows in this. Sealed jelly glasses make good containers. This also answers J. O. and several others.

* *

Chicago.—To the Editor.—I will be in the vicinity of Reelfoot Lake, Tennessee, in a few weeks. Will I have to get a license to fish there? G. T. L.

Answer—The license fee is $2, but the bass season is closed there from April 1 to June 1.

* *

Milwaukee, Wis.—To the Editor.—Will it injure a .22 caliber rifle to shoot shorts, longs, and long rifle cartridges in it? O. F.

Answer—Some .22 rifles are made to handle all three cartridges—it's all in the twist of the rifling—while others are to be used with one cartridge only. Usually the barrel is marked near the breech with the initials of the cartridge or cartridges to be used.

GOMPERS CALLS LABOR TO FIGHT WAR BORN GREED

Government Is Paralyzed Into Inaction, He Says.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., March 21.—[Special.]—The charge that the national machinery of government has been paralyzed into either inaction or reaction, and that greed has brushed aside the ideals which were born of America's participation in the world war, is made by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in outlining labor's political program in the current issue of the American Federationist.

Mr. Gompers calls upon organized labor to work for the "election of fit candidates" and to oppose those who have been, in the opinion of the American Federation of Labor, the foes of the masses.

"Stand faithfully by our friends and elect them. Oppose our enemies and defeat them, whether they be candidates for president, for congress, or other offices, whether executive, legislative, or judicial," is the message of Mr. Gompers.

Has Primaries in Mind.

Publicity is given to the statements of Mr. Gompers on the eve of an organized movement by labor to get its house in order for the campaign, so that its power may be felt in the primary elections as well as in the later phases of the national campaign.

Central bodies of labor throughout the country will meet tomorrow night, in response to the invitation of labor's campaign committee, for the purpose of appointing committees to carry on the campaign work. They will endeavor to bring immediately into the campaign the whole local machinery and membership of the labor movement.

Wants Thorough Housecleaning.

The editorial written by Mr. Gompers for the Federationist makes it evident that, in his opinion at least, the present political lineup is in no sense acceptable to labor and that the fight must be made for a thorough housecleaning, with fundamental changes in the relations between capital and labor which have heretofore been refused.

1. The deflation of currency; prevention of hoarding and unfair price fixing, establishment of coöperative movements operated under the Rochdale system; making accessible all income tax returns and dividend declarations as a direct and truthful means of revealing excessive costs and profits.

2. Legislation providing for the federal licensing of all corporations organized for profit.

For Coöperative Methods.

3. Application of coöperative methods to many problems arising from production, transportation and distribution. [This reform to include farmers.]

4. The ownership of homes, with the assistance of the government, which should inaugurate a plan to build model homes and establish a system of credits whereby the workers may borrow money at a low rate of interest and under favorable terms to build their own homes.

5. Legislation placing a graduated tax upon all usable lands above the acreage which is cultivated by the owner.

6. Taxation providing for full contribution from wealth by a tax upon profits which will not discourage industrial or commercial enterprises. There should be provided a progressive increase in taxes upon incomes, inheritances and land values of such a nature as to render it unprofitable to hold land without putting it to use.

Educational Supervision.

7. Government advisory supervision over public education.

8. The organization and use of credit to serve production needs and not to increase the incomes and holdings of financiers.

9. Public and semi-public utilities should be owned, operated or regulated by the government.

10. Government ownership and operation of all wharves and docks connected with public harbors which are used for commerce or transportation.

11. Government control of the American merchant marine.

12. Legislation providing that the governments, federal and state, should own, develop and operate all water power over which they have jurisdiction.

13. Provision that in the event of the supreme court declaring an act of congress or of a state legislature unconstitutional, and the people acting directly or through congress or a state legislature should re-enact the measure, it shall then become a law.

FITZPATRICK ATTACKS GOMPERS

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has refused to lend moral or financial support to the so-called "Labor party" organized by John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, and Edward N. Nockels, secretary of that organization.

A letter from President Gompers was read at the meeting of the Chicago federation yesterday in which he refuses a request for $5,000 for the local political campaign and recommends that the labor body support Congressmen Chindbloom, Mason, Mann, Rainey, Gallagher, and Juul.

"Congressman Rainey, whom the president asks us to support, was put in congress by the packers, and he is their spokesman in that body," said Fitzpatrick, commenting on the letter. "Yet one of the Republican candidates whom Gompers asks us to support has been fair to labor in their dealings in the legislative body of the government."

Another discussion arose in regard to the support of the federation, sought by Frank Ragen's meter readers, employed by the Commonwealth Edison company. The matter was referred to the grievance committee.

CHILD HEROINE WHO SAVED FIVE DIES OF BURNS

Little Thelma Renshaw Loses Battle.

Death entered the Children's Memorial hospital yesterday and took Thelma Renshaw, the 10 year old heroine who was burned Saturday as she saved her sister, two brothers, and two playmates from the fate that overtook her.

In the absence of Mrs. Mary McGrane, housekeeper for her father, James Renshaw, at 1805 Sedgwick street, Thelma was left in charge of William, 8; Norman, 6, and Dorothy, a babe, as well as Mary Pepperdine, 6, and her sister, Dorothy, 2, children of a neighbor.

Somehow a can of gasoline in the Pepperdine apartment, where the children were playing, became upset and ignited. In beating out the flames Thelma's clothes caught fire and she suffered fatal burns.

Robbed of $2,405 Gems and Cash in Front of Home

GYRATING GENT IN CIRCLING FLIV DAZES PARK COPS

Moonshine and Madness Lead to Cell.

It was a bucking automobile of a well known make, price, and capabilities, and it came snorting deliriously on its circuitous, snaky way through Lincoln park last night. When Edward Haddock, a park policeman, first saw it, it had circled a tree three times, leaped a clump of bushes, and was zigzagging through the thickest grove in the park. He chased it until he was dizzy. It had no light lit and it was hard to follow. It eluded him in the darkness.

He grabbed a telephone.

"Send help!" he said. "There's a crazy flivver hiding somewhere in the park."

He Suspected It.

Motorcycle Policemen Schaul, Smith, and Burke responded. They unearthed their quarry and three motorcycles leaped forth in hot pursuit. No movie cops ever cut such curves and didoes. Taking separate routes, they sped back and forth, circled, zigzagged between trees, and finally cornered the car as it gasped to a stop.

"Y'know," he said, "I—I shuspected that from th— hic!— from th' first."

"That darned boat of yours acts like it's pickled," said the policeman. "Drive to the station."

"If you had 'smuch booze 'board as thish boat you'd be pi-hic-hickled, too. Where's station?"

Bought From Frien'.

At the station Lieut. Samuel Pincus found seven bottles of moonshine in the car—that is, some of them had contained it, and some still did.

"Bought it from frien' never shaw before. Great stuff. Makes th' ol' boat young again. I'm Walter Smeitanski, pres-presiden' Holy Cross cemetery, Hammond. Thish park makes me think of home. Can't give you addresh of frien' but can get you bottle tomor-morrer."

Lieut. Pincus locked up the seven bottles. The Halsted street police locked up Smeitanski. The motorcycle cops locked up the car.

BOY MUSICIAN DISAPPEARS ON PAYDAY; NAVY?

Charlie Swan could play the slip horn or cornet better than any one else at the Lane Technical High school. That is why Charlie yearned to forsake his studies. A few weeks ago he left school and secured employment as an usher in a downtown picture theater. That did not satisfy him, so on March 13 he left home to join the navy as a musician.

According to his mother, Mrs. Laura Swan, 2903 Belmont avenue, Charlie, who is 14 years old, stands 4 feet 2 inches in his stocking feet and tips the scales at 235 pounds.

Charlie disappeared on payday and is believed by the police to be waiting an opportunity to enlist in the navy and to follow in the footsteps of his dead father, who served a dozen enlistments as a bandmaster. A brother of Charlie left home about a year ago and joined a theatrical company as a musician. He was killed in a railway accident shortly afterward.

TENANTS' LEAGUE READY TO TAKE IN NEW LOCALS

Quiet organization of locals in various communities is the program of the Chicago Tenants' Protective league this week.

Among those which will be taken in will be a group from Lake View in the neighborhood of the Addison street "L" station. The local has a charter membership of about twenty-five persons. The first formal meeting is expected to be held Wednesday evening. A. H. Brisboy, 1851 Cornelia street, is chairman.

A meeting of the Rogers Park Tenants' Protective association will be held tomorrow night in Eugene Field school. New members secured by teams of workers operating twenty zones will be taken in at the meeting.

WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND

600 POLICEMEN SEEK NEW JOBS WITH BETTER PAY

Leader Says 1,700 Can't Meet New Rents.

President Michael O'Connor of the Patrolmen's S. A. and E. club announced at the annual meeting yesterday that 600 patrolmen had reported to him that they would quit the force April 1, unless the city council grants the demanded increase of $300 a year for all grades of policemen. He also said that nearly 1,700 would be unable to pay rent increase demanded.

Policeman Morris Klein introduced a resolution which was unanimously adopted, calling upon President O'Connor to appoint a committee to look into both rents and food profiteering and to perfect plans for a policemen's coöperative store.

Comparative Wages.

"Patrolmen make from $3.94 to $4.93 a day" said O'Connor. "Milk wagon and bread wagon drivers earn about $60 a week with their salary and commission.

"Unless this raise is given there is no question but what the police force will be completely disorganized. Our men do not wish to quit. They like their work but they, their families and their children must live.

"If the city won't furnish their protectors of life and property the salary needed to secure this, it must expect the men to quit for more lucrative employment."

Clerks Threaten Strike.

Edward J. Hughes, secreary of Office Employés' association No. 12,655 the city hall clerks' and stenographers' union mailed a letter last night to Mayor Thompson and the city council demanding a flat increase in wages of $25 per month or a strike.

President James J. Flynn said last night that if the demands are not met, the clerks and stenographers will refuse to work Thursday. "They let out about thirty of the senior and principal clerks and the whole bunch is mad about it and will go on a strike unless they get the raise," he said.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

TODAY'S QUESTION.

The peace treaty being rejected, should the United States declare a state of peace with Germany?

The Answers.

CHARLES J. AGNEW, 40 East Elm street, a secretary—Yes. Why keep up the pretense that is delaying the forward movement? It strikes me that Germany should be given a chance.

MRS. DORA M'CORD, 741 North Dearborn street, a housewife—I should hope so. Why not open up the way for the German people to establish themselves again? The war is over. Let us discontinue this business of keeping a man down.

C. [illegible]WRENCE, Gary, Ind., secretary of the American Legion in that city—So far as I am concerned, there is nothing to be gained by further delay. It is taking us a whole lot longer to get out of the war than it did getting into it. Why not give up this idealistic business and get down to earth? Declare peace immediately.

E. EBERHARDT, 22 West Chestnut, a traveling man—It is obvious from all dispatches from Germany that she needs the moral support of a great country like ours, and I believe we should give her that support by declaring peace.

F. NEILSON, 1126 Washington boulevard, a clerk—I believe Germany needs a chance. Germany probably takes more of our raw materials than any other country in the world and we need her, too. If the Germans were given our steel, our cotton, our coal, and meats, she would help in knocking out the profiteers.

RISK CASHIER, DECLARED SHORT $4,100, VANISHES

Goes to Eat as Books Are Being Checked.

Curtis W. Tansley, 5965 Midway Park, Austin, who has been cashier of the American Eagle Fire Insurance company of New York, with offices at 207 West Jackson boulevard, disappeared Friday night.

He was helping Friday evening in the monthly check of his books, when he suddenly felt the necessity of "getting a bite to eat." He left to "run over and get a cup of java and a piece of cherry pie," and hasn't come back.

The check showed he was $4,100 short. This sum, it is said, includes a check for $2,500.

Chief Clerk Asks Police Aid.

His home was phoned Saturday and the information received that "Mr. Tansley hasn't been home all night."

Yesterday E. F. Cunningham, chief clerk of the company, asked the police to find the young man.

Alfred Stinson of 935 Michigan avenue, Evanston, manager of the American Eagle company, said last night he had been notified neither of Tansley's disappearance nor of the shortage. Charles R. Street, 676 Irving Park boulevard, manager of the Fidelity Insurance company, an affiliated organization, also denied knowledge of the affair.

Well Recommended.

"I can hardly believe Tansley has skipped out with any money," said Mr. Street. "I employed him about two years ago. He was well recommended by the accounting firm of Ernst & Ernst. I didn't see him at the office Saturday, but no one said anything about his being missing. Sometimes, though, I don't see Tansley for two weeks at a time, as I do not often come in contact with him in my work."

HOLD U. S. BONDS; THEY WILL RISE, WILLIAMS SAYS

Controller Predicts a War Issue Boom.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., March 21.—[Special.]—Liberty bonds will command a premium on the market within the next two years in the opinion of John Skelton Williams, controller of the currency. Mr. Williams in an interview today declared that holders of Liberty bonds need have no reason to worry over present market conditions.

Mr. Williams said the low quotations offered investors an extraordinary opportunity to obtain at very attractive figures the best security in the world.

Sees No Cause to Worry.

"I see no reason why anybody should worry about the market price of Liberty bonds," said Mr. Williams. "The bonds constitute as good an investment as there is. The government did not promise to pay on demand. It promised to pay at maturity, and it will keep its word. If anybody thinks he can use his money in any other way to better advantage he must expect to take it at a loss at the present time.

"I believe that within two years or less the bonds will be up to par and will command a premium.

"The people of this country need have no doubt of the ability of this nation now and always to meet in full every obligation and commitment.

"Any suggestion that the government refund the bonds at a higher rate of interest is unthinkable. Why should the government do anything of the sort? There is no reason why the government should do so from any standpoint."

Discusses Present Decline.

Discussing the conditions which caused the present decline in market values, Mr. Williams referred to instructions which he recently sent to national bank examiners that they need not for the present require national banks to mark down the price at which they are carrying Liberty bonds and Victory notes below the bona fide purchase price paid for these securities.

These instructions contained a proviso that banks would not be permitted to carry these bonds on their books above market quotations where the bonds cost the banks only the market price or less.

"The income of the people of the United States in excess of ordinary living expenses," said Mr. Williams, "probably amounts at this time to more than $10,000,000,000 per annum and less than one-fifth of this estimated surplus investable income would be sufficient to absorb in twelve months all investments still held by national banks in Liberty bonds.

Most Held by Investors.

"The Liberty bonds already have been widely distributed to investors. On Nov. 17, 1919, the amount of Liberty bonds owned by all national banks amounted to only $829,000,000, which was less than 4 per cent of the total resources of the national banks at that time."

Mr. Williams remarked he could recall not so many years ago when government 4 per cent bonds were selling at 140.

He reiterated that as the world settles down to fairly normal conditions it is a certainty that market values of Liberty bonds will go to par and above.

14 AND 16, THEY COME FROM IOWA TO GET ON STAGE

Ruth La Grange, 16 years old, and Dorothy Weaher, 14, disappeared last Tuesday from their homes in Des Moines. The sheriff telegraphed Chief of Detectives Mooney to be on the lookout for them.

Saturday the chief received information that two young girls were stopping at the Hotel Metropole, but before the detectives reached the hotel the girls had disappeared. Yesterday morning the girls were found in the Palmer house.

The girls said they came here to get on the stage. They are at a detention home pending instructions from Des Moines.

Dies of Heart Disease After Calling Bellboy

About 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning Harry M. Parry, 60 years old, of Peoria, a guest of the Drexel Arms hotel, summoned a bellboy. No answer was made to his knock on Parry's door. Parry was dead in bed. Death is believed to have been due to heart disease.

POSTAL WORKERS OPEN DRIVE FOR "LIVING" WAGES

Landis Asks Justice for Low Paid Clerks.

"There is no employer in America who has so low a wage scale as the United States government."

Snapping out these words, Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis brought a packed house in the Cort theater to its feet yesterday afternoon. The theater was filled with Chicago postoffice employés assembled as a protest against treatment accorded them by congress. Many of them stood in their seats as the entire audience howled its approval of the judge's statement.

Two hundred others unable to gain entrance waited outside until Judge Landis finished his speech and then pleaded with him for an overflow address. The judge mounted a soap box and started anew.

"Must Substitute Justice."

"Congress must substitute justice for the rankest kind of injustice which it has given the employés of the government in its abolition of the $240 annual bonus," the judge declared. "The pay of federal employés today is the same as it was in 1914, which seems to me to be an outrage. Any steps which you can take toward enlisting the aid of the public in your requests for more pay and the reestablishment of the bonus are justified.

"If the government wants its influence felt in the ranks of private industry it must adopt a policy of justice to its own employés. Unless the government changes its policy it will find the coal and steel barons offering to arbitrate the differences."

Pathos and Humor.

Overcome with indignation upon hearing the judge's story of a federal building scrub woman, Charles F. Nagl, vice president of the National Federation of Federal Employés, jumped to his feet and cried, "That's right, and I know dozens of similar cases."

"Sit down and leave my speech alone," snapped the judge, winking toward the audience. "You see, I have as much trouble keeping order here as I do in my own courtroom."

"When the war broke out the federal employés were underpaid and at that time I advised them to sit tight and that I would fight for them as soon as the emergency ceased," Judge Landis continued. "It's over now, and I'm ready to go all the way for them.

"Federal employés are loyal to their government and if their pay were cut in half they wouldn't strike. That is all the more reason why congress should effect immediate legislation in their behalf.

Find Way to Tax "Melons."

"There is a Supreme court decision that eliminates the paying of federal taxes on stock dividends. Now, I never criticize any court, but I can reserve in my own mind my own private opinions. Many melons will be cut over this country soon, but I still think that a way will be found to give the government power to tax stock dividends.

"I sincerely advise everybody in the federal service who can get another job to do so. Many young people have consulted me about going into the service, but I always beg them not to under any circumstances. Some men think it is economy to keep men on small pay. I say it's insanity."

Others who spoke were Gilbert Hyatt, national president of the Postal Clerks' union; Howard Ebey, president of local No. 27, Federation of Federal Employés, and Oscar Nelson, vice president of the Chicago Federation of Labor.

Resolutions calling upon congress to restore the bonus of $240 and the enactment of legislation giving an additional $240 to each employé receiving $2,500 annually or less, as well as to those whose salaries exceed that amount, were passed.

Overwhelmed with Work.

While Judge Landis was speaking, 1,000 men were making frantic efforts to clean up the congestion of mails at the Union and Northwestern railway stations. Bags and bundles were piled out far into the streets, and there the clerks, some in overcoats, did their sorting.

Six hundred tons of mail were stacked in and around the Northwestern station. A foreman said the men were working day and night, but not enough help can be hired under the existing wage scale. He also intimated that there were many purchasers of Easter suits and hats who will be disappointed because of the congestion.

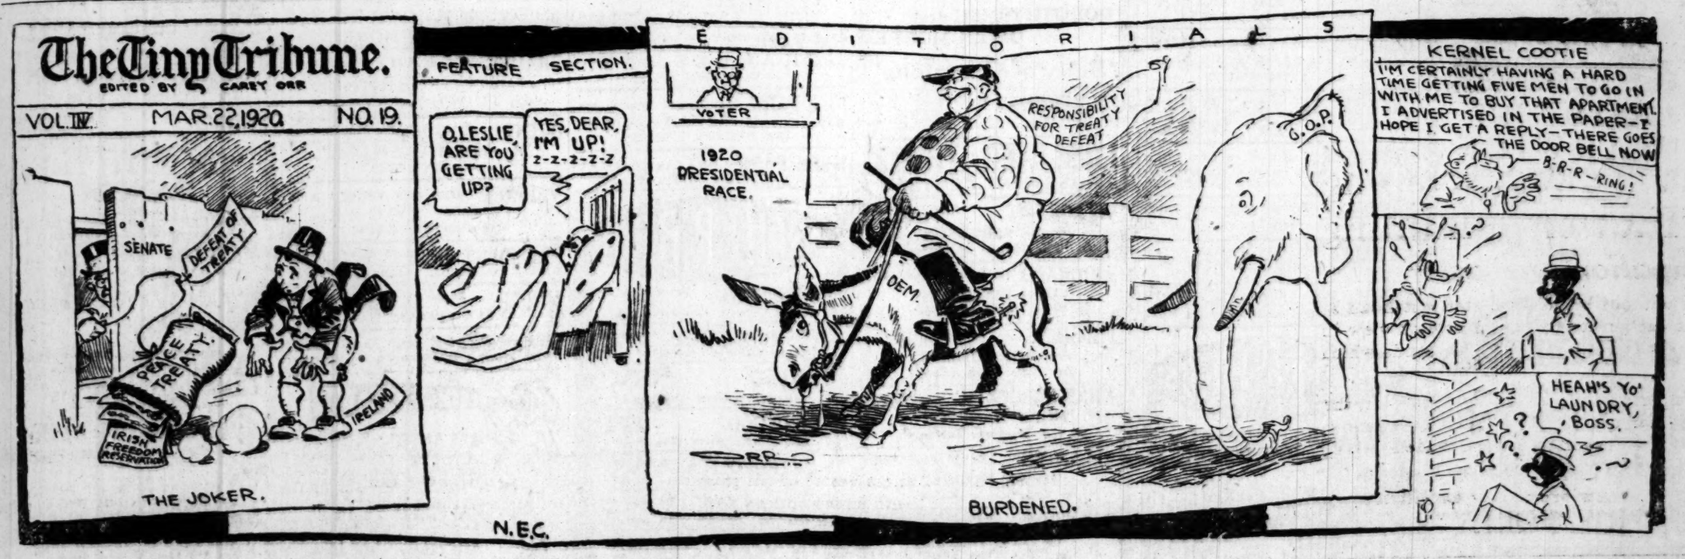

Dr. Melbourne P. Boynton, pastor of the Woodlawn Baptist church, [illegible]or the postal employés in his sermon last night.

SEEK ROOMMATE AS MAN IS FOUND SHOT TO DEATH

A Polish laborer known only as "Pete" was found murdered yesterday in a basement at 1340 West Ohio street. The body was found by Peter Kozal, who lives upstairs. He went to the basement and saw the man leaning, apparently asleep, against the foot of the bed. The police were notified.

"I knew him only as Pete," said Kozal. "Frank Kilaszek rented the basement recently and Pete came there to live just two days ago. I don't know what's becomes of Kilaszek."

No revolver was found in the basement. An empty whisky bottle lay on the floor. The bed was mussed, as if there had been a struggle. The police believe that the two men became engaged in a drunken quarrel and that Kilaszek fired the shot and fled. 'Pete's" money was found in his pockets. A search is being made for Kilaszek.

Miss Brady has evidently decided that if that good looking husband of hers can "lead" for other fair ladies he shall support her once in a while. So in "Sinners" we have Mr. and Mrs. James L. Crane at our service.

This is not Miss Brady's best picture, by any means. Her work seems forced, and she has acquired an unpleasant habit of allowing her mouth to drop open, which registers as stupidity, instead of the perturbation I imagine she intends to depict. This fault, however, should be charged to the director. Directors are there to "catch" just this sort of thing.

There is a question propounded in "Sinners," as I understand it. And it's the old question as to whether or not the pot has a right to call the kettle black; whether a warmer heart may not beat under a mantle of shame than under a righteous covering.

Mary Horton goes to the big city and would have starved for all the help she receives from her own kind. But Hilda Newton, whose Bible name is Mary Magdalene, takes her in.

The finale takes place in the little sleepy town from which Hilda and Mary have both hailed. Here everybody worth while shakes the dust of evil from their footies and turns right about face to trudge in the paths of righteousness.

Augusta Anderson as the disillusioned and regretful Hilda is splendid, and Lorraine Frost as a merry little "gold digger" is clever and realistic. Mr. Crane is nice—as, in fact, are all the men in the cast.

But the production, as a whole, is only average.

Tribune Cook Book

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Cooking the Globe Artichoke.

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—[Special Correspondence.]—They treat the globe artichoke better out here, in preparing it for the pot of boiling water, perhaps acidulated with a little lemon juice or vinegar, than most of the cook books direct. They certainly treat it better than they do in the artichoke land of New Orleans. They treat it better because they do not mutilate it before it goes to the cooking pot.

This mutilation consists in cutting off the top of the globe, which requires a sharp knife which may be dulled by the operation. One famous cook book, I remember, gives the direction to cut off all but the bottom two inches of the globe before cooking it. The result is that the cut edges blacken, and are unsightly, almost as soon as this green is out of the cooking water.

This is a foolish direction for more than one reason. We eat only about a half inch of the inside of the leaf unless we are Italians. They eat the whole leaf of a fresh artichoke, especially those twice cooked. And it is desirable to keep water out of the globe, so why break nature's seal? It is especially desirable to drain out all cooking water if the boiled artichoke is to be dropped in deep fat and crisped in the fashion the Italians call "a la Judea." The globe must be drained in any case after it is cooked.

My own future method of cooking the globe artichoke will be simply to wash it, drop it in boiling water, rinse it with cold water, cook it after that about fifteen minutes in water to cover. I believe now that it may be most perfectly cooked in that fashion, but I may learn of some better way out here.

FASHION'S BLUE BOOK

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Once more we basque in the rays of fashion. The 1920 model of basque generally has short sleeves instead of the old long, adhesive ones. And instead of buttoning up about the neck in a stiff little collar, the modern basque is cut to a round or U-shaped neck filled in frequently with lace, organdie, or chiffon in contrasting tint.

Sometimes the modern basque finishes in a little peplum or in godets and generally it is combined with the plaited skirt, the three tiered plaited skirt being particularly smart. Here in this Havana brown taffeta, however, we show a diversion from the usual basque treatment, for this wrinkles down in the back over a draped skirt, giving greatest fullness at the sides. A wide ruche of ecru organdie serves as collar and brown wool fringe is the trimming.

ADEMIA: GETTING READY FOR the short skirts, I take it! They aren't very kind to fat legs and ankles, are they? It is a slow business reducing fat on legs, but if you are willing to work hard on exercises, send me a stamped, addressed envelope and I will mail you some instructions I have just had made up for those burdened as you. They are illustrated and consequently easy to follow, and if you are willing to put the "kick" into them they will reduce in time.

PLANT FOODS

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

The value of home garden vegetables lies not only in the quantity but in the quality. The quality is governed by the presence of sufficient available plant food to satisfy the particular demand of each variety of vegetable.

Juice, which determines the palatability of the tomato, the sweetness of the corn, the tenderness of celery, is dependent upon the presence of a sufficient amount of plant food in the soil in a form that is available to the roots of the plant.

Many gardeners have had poor vegetables after a season of hard work because the soil lacks in some plant food. Manure supplies a part of this plant food, but because of its scarcity other fertilizers are now being tried. There are only three plant foods lacking in the soil under ordinary conditions—ammonia, phosphoric acid, and potash. Ammonia makes the stalk grow rapidly and large and gives a healthy color to the leaves. Phosphoric acid especially influences the root growth, increasing the healthiness and vigor of the plant, and hastens maturity. Potatoes, turnips, lettuce, spinach, and radishes all are especially benefited by the presence of plenty of phosphoric acid.

Potash is the starch producer. It strengthens the stalks of the plants. Plants like sweet corn, the quality of which depends upon the presence of sugar, and potatoes, in which the solid matter is largely made up of starch, must have sufficient potash if the best quality of roasting ear or potato is to be secured. The yield of potatoes is greatly increased by the application of potash.

Under most conditions a fertilizer containing 3 per cent ammonia, 10 per cent phosphoric acid, and 2 per cent potash is best for vegetables such as tomatoes, potatoes, lettuce, cabbage, cucumbers, and sweet corn. For onions, which need more potash than most vegetables, change the above percentage to 2, 8, and 8 per cent. Apply the fertilizer at the rate of six pounds to each square rod after plowing or spading the garden. Work it into the ground at planting time.

National Figures Join Church Drive

John D. Rockefeller Jr., Gov. Henry J. Allen of Kansas, Charles E. Hughes, and Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels will make a whirlwind campaign through the east and middle west in the interests of the interchurch world movement. The campaigners will speak in Chicago on April 9, according to advices received yesterday.

The special appeal of the party will be for united support in the interchurch campaign to raise $336,777,572 in the weeks of April 5-May 2.

Time Is The True Test of Soap

"You cannot fool all the people all the time," and a soap that cannot stand the test of time is not worthy of the name SOAP.

Many soaps come, endure a short while, then pass into oblivion. Only the one with the highest merit and the greatest purity lives on year after year—generation after generation.

And that soap—as American housewives for over three generations will attest—is

KIRK'S
AMERICAN FAMILY
SOAP

Both by chemical analysis and the test of time, American Family stands foremost in purity, washing efficiency and economy.

It lasts longer, goes farther and washes more easily and thoroughly in warm or cold water, and never destroys in any way or discolors or spots the most delicate fabrics, and always leaves the clothes sweet smelling and clean.

Experimenting with passing soaps is costly when its known merit for eighty years has proved American Family. It is best in washing machines too.

Auditorium Filled for Piano Recital by Rachmaninoff

BY W. L. HUBBARD.

Sergei Rachmanicoff is the most interesting objective pianist Chicago has had the privilige of hearing this season.

The objectives among piano players are apt to prove scholarly to the point of pedantry, analytical to the limit of tediousness. Not so with Rachmaninoff.

Few of the great pianists—and he ranks high among the great—color their interpretations so little with their own musical personality as does he. The "pure white light of inspiration" shines through his mind and fingers still the color it came from the composer. He tinges it little with aught of him own. And yet he is one of the most interesting, one of the most individual, one of the most compelling and enjoyable of all the pianists who come to us.

But his power lies not in his making his interpretations largely subjective. He holds his musical self as much apart from the composer he is interpreting, as he holds his personal self aloof from his auditors. He is kindly to his auditors and they feel that he is gracious. But he still is quiet, unobstrusive, serious in their presence.

And as with them, so is with the composer. He loves him and his works and gives of his best to make him and his works clear to those who hear. But he obtrudes nothing of himself upon him and them. And yet, there are few players who get so completely inside the composition they interpret as does this earnest mannered Russian. With the insight and sympathy of the creative musician he grasps a composition from within rather than through its externals.

The result is an interpretation that gives to every note and phrase its full value and its rightful place and proportion. The hearers seem to get the music exactly as the composer thought it, the melody ever in prominence, each harmony rightfully balanced, each secondary and subsidiary note and phrase perfectly proportioned to the whole and yet clear and ever eloquent.

Performance that satisfies in every respect is the product, and a recital by Rachmaninoff can but rejoice. It is musical in the highest degree, emotionally colorful, sane and warm, interpretatively sincere, and genuine and technically splendid. For coupled with his rare interpretative powers he has a technical equipment that is all that the most exacting could demand.

Yesterday he gave a program at the Auditorium before a packed house. Its list included fourteen Studies and one Sonata to which were added countless encores. The Sonata was the Chopin B minor and the difficult and musically somewhat esoteric work was played with a mastery, a clarity and a tonal beauty that made it a veritable delight, while the Studies, ranging from Paganini-Schumann through Chopin, Rachmaninoff, Rubenstein and Scriabine to Liszt, were musically varied, technically faultless and beautifully given forth as the poems, the dramas, or the emotional messages their creators fashioned them.

WEDDING BELLS

They'll Tinkle Soon for Oak Park Girl and Joliet Sorority Maiden.

ADRIENNE STAINFIELD.

It's spring again. March may rain, but Cupid still reigns. In witness whereof, gaze occasionally at the increasing length of the "engagements" column. For instance, today these announcements are requested:

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kimball of 412 North Grove avenue, Oak Park, announce the engagement of their daughter, Perry, to Henry Coleman Crowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Crowell of Winnetka. Miss Kimball received her degree of B. S. at the University of Chicago on March 1.

And again:

At the Gamma Beta Phi sorority's "cozy" at the home of Miss Josephine Weston in Evanston, Miss Adrienne G. Stainfield announced her engagement to Charles Cheadle. Both are from Joliet, sweethearts since childhood.

Dr. and Mrs. W. K. McLaughlin of the Lexington hotel announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth Kirby, to Donald Davis Millikin of New York.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

One of Mother's Favorites.

A neighbor girl stopped in one evening to return a book she had borrowed. She was glancing over some music on the piano and asked me to play one of the pieces. My mother was present at the time but went into another room while I was at the piano.

After playing several pieces I asked the girl if she didn't play. She smiled in the affirmative and, after looking through my music, selected a piece that my mother often had asked me to play.

She had played but a few measures when my mother called to me in a disgusted voice, "Emily, if you can't play that piece any better than that, don't play it at all. Why, I never heard such discords!" E. B.

Y. W. C. A. Purchases Fox River Resort for Summer Home

Millhurst, forty-five miles west of Chicago, one of the beauty spots of the Fox river, has been purchased by the Young Women's Christian association for use as a summer recreational center. It comprises thirteen acres and was formerly the home of Frank Vanderlip.

Mrs. Robert L. McCall, member of the board of trustees and the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A., explained last night that the purpose was to use the property "for those we term girls of teen age—that is between 12 and 18 years. We can accommodate 100 at a time, for periods of one to two weeks. During the summer we shall probably handle 1,000 girls."

An old four story mill, on the bank of the Fox river, will be utilized as a dormitory and social dining hall. However, tents will be provided, and girls who so desire may live in them.

The Y. W. C. A. thus acquires two recreational centers. The other is on the northern limits of the Indiana dunes and is known as the industrial and business girls' center.

Offers "Seven Points" Cure for Unrest

BY THE REV. F. L. GRATIOT.

Charles A. Heath, president of the Albert Dickinson Seed company, has a substitute for the fourteen points of the peace treaty. They are only seven. They will restore peace, settle reconstruction, and bring about rehabilitation. At the evening service of the First Presbyterian church in one of the greater Chicago program meetings Mr. Heath listed his points as follows:

1. Increase food production immediately. 2. Regulate cost prices and punish profiteers instanter. 3. Distribute labor equitably and regulate nonessential industries. 4. Refund the national debt. 5. Cancel the allied debts. 6. Build good roads. 7. Improve rural life in America.

"It seems impossible to stop the 'spending jag' Americans are on," Mr. Heath said. "Nonessential industries are being patronized so freely they are able to pay higher wages than the essential ones."

DORIS BLAKE'S ANSWERS

In Love with a Friend.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am a young girl of 17½ and am deeply in love with a friend whom I have known since childhood (known the family, too, more so). The young man in question does not seem to like me as much as I would want him to, but the last time I was out to his home I was dressed up nicely and he took more interest in me than he usually did otherwise. Do you think I can make him like me better if I dress nicely and act very polite? PEGGY."

Undoubtedly you can attract more attention and admiration by dressing nicely and acting like a perfectly nice, wholesome mannered girl. Don't try to be too formally polite, however, because that frightens young men off.

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $1 for each childish saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Please write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Aunty Bee, Tribune, Chicago.

Doris and Arthur were taken by their father to see the new baby brother. Later, when seated at the breakfast table, Arthur exclaimed, "O, papa, now we have three men in the house." B. G. B.

I had been watching my small son play with a next door neighbor's boy, an aggravating boy, and I wondered how long my own child would stand for the other's selfishness. I did not have long to wait, for "the worm turned" and my son let loose some pretty hasty language. When he came in I reprimanded him and told him that while he had some cause for his tirade, yet it was always possible for him to leave the child alone. He was contrite at once, but he said, "Well, the mad was in me and I guess it just made its own way out." M. C. P.

GERMAN REVOLT STRIKES AN ECHO IN LONDON MART

BY MANFRED EMANUEL.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[By Special Cable.]

LONDON, March 21.—There was another depressing week on the stock exchange. Trouble began on Monday owing to the news from Germany. Depression was increased by factors now regarded as usual factors—fears of higher money, increased taxation, and a war wealth levy—while another blow came in shape of continental selling, said to be chiefly for German account.

Gilt edge securities suffered severely. All leading British funds, in turn, touched new low records. The foreign bond section naturally was affected.

Oil Shares Also Lower.

Oils sagged heavily in the earlier days. Kaffirs had some extra trouble of their own—the unsatisfactory result of the Cape Coloney elections. Poor February returns showed that without the gold premium the Rand as a whole would have had a loss for the month, while industries were subjected to considerable sales.

On the other hand, there was no trace of panic, and the tone improved on Thursday, when the bank rate was left unchanged, while on the concluding day the undertone was good, though the markets were at a standstill.

As to the future, the new budget should not cause any fear, because the revenue showings are excellent. The Bank of England rate may be put up, though way remains a mystery, and the proposed levies not expected to pass in parliament.

Business Will Pick Up.

When the flood of new issues subsides, as it must, business will return to the stock exchange, and prices will not remain long at the present level.

In the meantime there is just "suspense and nothing doing"—great opportunity for pessimist and "bears."

Shipping Board to Ask Rates on Water Freight

Washington, D. C., March 21.—The shipping board has taken under consideration the proposed promulgation of regulations requiring "interstate water carriers" to file complete schedules of their maximum rates. The purpose is to make the rates immediately available to shippers and to prevent discrimination or rebates. The regulations, however, would not apply to carriers operating between American and foreign ports.

United States Radiator.

W. G. B.—The United States Radiator company reports operating profits in the year ended Jan. 31 last about equal to those of the preceding year. The year's final surplus, however, is only $464,129, compared with $523,870 the year before. Dividends were resumed by paying 7 per cent on the $2,800,000 of preferred stock on Jan. 25. Profit and loss surplus increased to $811,539. The company is making fair progress, but it has a long way to go before its $4,000,000 of common stock will be out of the purely speculative class.

American Writing Paper.

F. S. C.—The American Writing Paper company refunded its bonded debt last summer. Under the new indenture it must pay $120,000 a year plus 25 per cent of net earnings into the sinking fund until the debt is reduced to $10,000,000. After that point the payment is to be $120,000 plus 15 per cent. It is probable that all surplus over the sinking fund in the next year or two will be needed for plants and working capital. There are now 136¼ per cent of accrued dividends unpaid on the preferred stock.

Brief Answers.

B. L. L., Maquoketa, Ia.—The fiscal year of the Westinghouse Electric company ends March 31. It earned 20¾ per cent on common stock in the year ended last March. Report for year now ending not yet compiled.

W. H. S.—The Barney & Smith Car company was put in a receiver's hands last November. It is to be reorganized. No recent financial statement made public.

M. L. W.—Transue & Williams earned $7.35 a share in 1919, compared with $5.14 in 1918. The company has 100,000 shares of no par value and no funded or floating debt.

L. E. G.—United Texas Petroleum is just a speculation.

France in Need of Farm Tools at Once

Washington, D. C., March 21.—[Special.—France today is full of worn out farm machinery which the owners have patched and repatched, according to a report made public today by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce of the commerce department. Implement dealers have cleaned up their old stocks and the trade has marked time while the demand accumulated.

The present exchange situation makes the speedy renewal of German competition in this line inevitable unless American exporters can arrange terms which will overcome the factors now making against trade with the United States.

Total of French Loan Believed Over 12 Billions

Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.

PARIS, March 21.—It will be four or five days before the results of the French peace loan, which closed yesterday, will be known. It is stated semi-officially that it has realized between 12,000,000,000 and 15,000,000,000 francs. Interviewed today, Minister of Finance Marsal said the loan was a success.

"Despite the unfavorable circumstances," he said, "the railroad strike, the miners' strike, the textile strike, and the events in Germany and all that, the material and moral forces of France have marched forward together. By Thursday or Friday we will be able to announce the complete result.'"

IN view of the interest in French Government Internal Loans it has become necessary for bankers as well as investors to have at their disposal a comparison of the principal issues. We have therefore prepared a chart which gives for each issue the present income in francs and in dollars, with a 1c change in the value of the franc from 7c to 19c, the increase in income as the franc recovers its exchange value, and the comparative profits and income at current rates for each loan.

Also a graphic chart which shows the fluctuations in the French 3% and 5% Rentes since 1798.

MARKET ECHOES MARKED CHANGE IN SENTIMENT

The New York Times.

New York, March 21.—[Special.]—Indications of a constructive change of financial and industrial sentiment have come further into the foreground during the last few days.

During the first half of March the events occurred which have been reflected in many directions since—the Supreme court decisions in the stock dividend and railroad valuation cases; the clean bill of health for the Steel corporation; the rise of the foreign exchanges based on announcement that the Anglo-French loan would be retired when due, and the return of the railways to their owners.

So influential were these developments that the threatened return of German militarists to power and Spartacide upheavals caused only a ripple over the markets, and last Friday's decision of the senate not to accept the peace treaty appeared to be ignored next day as a factor of practical importance in American business and finance. As to this last item, it is to be said that time will be needed to bring the results of a peace joined in by the allied countries, but not by the United States.

Future in Doubt.

The curtain hangs over the stage, preventing sight of the next scene in the drama, and it may not be guessed at this time how the country is formally to conclude peace with Germany. Nor is it possible to determine how much America is to lose in trade relations with central European nations, our traders and bankers being handicapped by the absence of a signature to the treaty.

Ignoring things abroad or matters having foreign application, the financial markets strode forward with vigor last week. In the case of stocks, dealings were perhaps too one sided—the railroad shares were shouldered to one side—and there were unsatisfactory signs of the plunging operations which helped unsettle market credit conditions last autumn.

Undoubtedly, the action of the money market had considerable effect upon speculation in stocks. Compared with a maximum quotation of 15 per cent for demand loans in the preceding week, last week's highest rate was 9 per cent, and from mid-week onward there was plenty of money available at 7 and 6 per cent. A 7 per cent rate does not look high to the trader, provided that funds are plentiful.

Whether a rate so low may be maintained for any length of time is something yet to be answered. If precedent counts for anything, demands upon New York from interior banks should begin to expand very soon, especially if the spring should open early. Crops will be put in this year under the highest farm wage cost ever experienced; machinery will command almost record prices, fertilizers will be dear.

Farmers Have Money.

As a partial offset stands the fact that the rank and file of farmers have larger working capital than before the war; but, assuming that an acreage comparable to last year's is to be put to grain and cotton, there should be an extraordinary demand for currency in the farming regions. It is estimated that banks outside of New York are at present lending two-thirds of the money on call at this center.

The question of monetary ease or stringency at New York during the planting season may depend upon the success of interior bankers in cutting down loans on commodities. That some progress has been made is denoted both in reports coming from mercantile centers and through the fact that call money has been plentiful of late. Millions of dollars had been tied up prior to March 1 in goods which had been sold, but had not been moved because of bad weather conditions. Railroads did not have enough cars, and these were not able to do a maximum amount of work because of the weather. The backed up goods have been getting to market the last three weeks, and it is likely that a general movement to liquidate bank loans has progressed.

OFFICIAL WEATHER FORECAST.

NEUTRALS MAY HELP FINANCE CENTRAL EUROPE

PARIS, March 21.—[By the Associated Press.]—Important negotiations are going on at present and have been in progress for some time between allied representatives and the neutral governments of Switzerland, Holland, and Scandinavia with the view of participation by these states in a proposed scheme of credits, with the object of securing the financial and economic rehabilitation of Austria and other central European states, it was learned today.

The neutral governments are declared to be keenly alive to the fact that the collapse of these countries would necessarily have effects which could not possibly be confined to their own frontiers or finances.

One question under discussion is the enforced sale of German property in these neutral countries to meet indemnities, but this proposal is meeting opposition.

Sir William Goode, British director of relief, will depart next week to confer with the Dutch and Scandinavian governments.

Alvarado Mining & Milling Company

(of Maine)

CAPITALIZATION

Authorized 1,200,000 Shares — Issued 350,000 Shares

Par Value $20.00 Per Share

The Company has no bonded indebtedness except $51,000 First Mortgage Bonds remaining from an authorized issue of $1,000,000, the retirement of which will be effected on July 1, 1920. It has no notes or preferred stock. After giving effect to the present financing, the Company will have net quick assets in excess of $2,000,000 for the further enlargement of its operations.

The Company was organized in Maine in 1910 and is protocolized in the Republic of Mexico. The property is one of the world's great silver mines. Production for 1918 and 1919 was in excess of 2,000,000 ounces of silver each year.

The Company maintains a large engineering organization for the investigation of mining enterprises throughout the world. It will be noted that there are 850,000 shares unissued, which remain available for the acquirement and development of additional properties.

A. J. McQuatters, President of the Company, who has successfully developed and operated the property for the past ten years, will continue to direct its affairs. Mr. McQuatters introduced modern mining and milling practices in the Parral District of Mexico, and was the pioneer in northern Mexico in the treatment of ore by the cyanide process.

After a thorough investigation, under the direction of W. Rowland Cox, mining engineer, covering a period of six months, the Mexican International Corporation has taken a substantial stock interest in the Company and is represented on the Company's Board of Directors

The following are excerpts from a summary by President A. J. McQuatters from his letter to the bankers:

Properties and Location: The Company owns four groups of mines, namely, The Presena Group, The Palmilla Group, Las Cruces-Cabadena Group, and Las Animas Mine, which, including mill site, comprise approximately 700 acres, situated in the District of Parral, State of Chihuahua, Republic of Mexico, within five miles of the City of Parral and 517 miles by rail from El Paso, Texas. Plants are of modern steel construction, and are operated by hydro-electric power purchased under contract. Further than the above, the Company has recently acquired the Terrenates Mine, which has a vein extension of 1,000 feet on the Veta Colorada ledge and is located about 2,000 feet from the Company's Presena Group.

Ore Reserves: The ore reserves estimated as of November 21, 1919, by Franklin W. Smith, a mining engineer, amount to 2,086,000 tons of positive ore of an average grade of 9.2 ounces silver, and 2,592,000 tons of probable ore averaging 8.7 ounces silver, a total of 4,678,000 metric tons of an average grade of 8.9 ounces silver. He considers that there are also excellent possibilities for the development of additional ore over and above that now in reserve, not alone in the Presena Mine, but in other properties of the Company in the Parral District, particularly the Palmilla Mine.

Development on the lowest level shows that high grade ore occurrences, similar to those previously mined above, will likewise form a part of the tonnage to be hereafter mined below. A grade of 12 ounces is expected in this horizon, with consequent larger profit from such ore.

Production: The Alvarado Mining & Milling Company began operations in 1911, and up to the first of the current year produced 923,000 tons of ore, containing approximately 15,000,000 ounces of silver and 12,500 ounces of gold.

During 1919 the plant operated the equivalent of 338¾ days and milled 176,095 metric tons of ore. This yielded 2,038,736 ounces of silver and 1,591 ounces of gold, equivalent to a yield per ton of 11.6 ounces of silver and 0.01 ounces gold. Ore treated in January, 1920, was 17,168 tons, and in February in excess of 18,000 tons. The construction program, now under way, calls for an increase in the capacity of the plant to 1,200 tons per day, or 36,000 tons per month.

Earnings: The net earnings of the properties, before depletion and depreciation and interest on the bonds (all of which are shortly to be retired), and after taxes, were in 1918, $767,558, and in 1919 approximately $1,150,000. It is estimated that the net earnings for 1920 will be in excess of $1,250,000, based upon silver at $1.10 per ounce.

Examinations: Titles to the property have been approved by Curtis, Mallet-Prevost & Colt and the legality of the issue of new stock has been approved for the Mexican International Corporation by the above mentioned firm and also by White & Case, and for the undersigned by Davies, Auerbach & Cornell. Audits by Price, Waterhouse & Company. Reports on ore reserves, metallurgy and equipment by the following engineers: Franklin W. Smith, W. Rowland Cox, E. M. Hamilton and Dr. J. E. Clennell.

A careful review of the engineering and operating factors has been made by Rogers, Mayer & Ball, who have been retained as consulting engineers, and they concur in the proposed program for the enlargement of the plant. They also estimate future operating costs on the enlarged scale of operations at $5.10 a ton. Thus on the ore reserves estimated by Mr. Smith, the profit after paying Mexican taxes, would be $3.31 per ton, taking silver at $1.25 per ounce.

It is expected that application will be made to list this stock on the New York Stock Exchange. Temporary certificates will be delivered pending engraving of permanent stock certificates.

CAR SCARCITY IS BIG FEATURE IN ALL GRAINS

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

A grain trader who remarked, "We are doing little except trading in cars," when asked what was going on said a whole lot. That is about what is doing in all the leading markets. Arrivals are not sufficient to create accumulations of importance, and there are no burdensome stock. The latter has been the basis for the speculative buying and the advance in prices of almost 35c since Feb. 9.

Were the railroads able to furnish cars enough to move the grain that has been sold and awaits shipment from the interior, the situation would be materially changed. Prospects, unfortunately, are not good for a car supply sufficient to meet the grain interests or any other set of shippers. Traffic conditions, however, have improved somewhat, with milder weather, and scattered reports indicate that there are a few more cars available for the grain trade, but not enough to bring the relief desired.

Divided on Future Values.

The corn trade is divided as to the future action of prices. Values are high. There is no profit in feeding live stock at the present level for corn. Good supplies are in the country, but the main trouble is with the poor transportation.

Many are looking for higher prices after a further break. Of late a majority of the traders have been wrong in their prognostications of low prices.

March corn closed Saturday at $1.58⅞, up 6⅝c for the wee; May $1.55¼@1.55⅝, up 7¼c. July, $1.48⅞@1.48⅞, up 6⅝c, and September $1.44⅝@1.44⅞, or 6c better than a week ago. Range for the week follows:

Oats at New Record, $1.00.

Oats at their high point last week were up 15⅝c from the low of Feb. 9. The highest prices of the season were made, and No. 2 white sold at $1.00, the highest on record. In several of the outside markets sales were made above $1.00. Speculative trading was the largest in weeks, with heavy buying of May and the deferred futures, especially the latter. Enormous realizing was followed by a reversal of the position by some of the large operators, and a break of 5c was made from the top, net gains being 2⅝@3⅝c.

May oats closed Saturday at 86⅝c to 86½c, July at 78⅞c to 79c, and September 70c. Prices for the week follow:

Meat Prices Lower.

Prices for good dressed beef were shaded ½c on the extreme between Monday and Friday last week. Light and heavy pork loins dropped 1c, and dressed lambs were reduced 1c, while mutton advanced ½c to 1c. Trade in fresh cuts of pork was fair, and the demand for hams good.

Speculative interest in lard and short ribs was larger, and with corn and hogs higher, prices responded to liberal covering by the short interest. Export business is not mentioned. Great Britain is well supplied, but will buy moderately from now on.

Pork finished the week with gains of $2.50 to $2.70, due to limited offerings. Lard, however, finished 35c to 50c, and short ribs 75c to $1.00 higher than a week ago. Prices for the week follow:

ENGLAND DRIVES BUSINESS WEDGE INTO GERMANY

Washington, D. C., March 21.—British manufacturers are not losing any time in renewing trade with the German, Trade Commissioner Dresel at Berlin has reported to the department of commerce. The better class mercantile establishments at Berlin are showing varied lines of British made goods, particularly woolens and leather, the report said.

Describing the arrangements made by the British for shoe contracts for the next two years, and the "handsome" profits obtained because of the exchange situation, Mr. Dresel said:

"In my opinion there is no reason why such an arrangement for the supply of materials on a large scale could not be carried out by American dealers for their own profit and for the assistance of German industry during the period necessary for reconstruction."

The New Fashions for Easter

ASSORTMENTS are at the height of completeness. Nothing in the new that carries the impress of individuality is lacking. Every style is touched with the fresh charm of springtime. Quickly and unerringly selections may be made. And as the time to Easter grows short that is a point of no small importance. A brief review of these assortments follows. It is given merely as guide for selection.

The Suit Pictured Is of Very Fine Tricotine

The Frock of Printed Georgette Crepe Beaded

The modes sketched above were chosen as representative of many others equally attractive. In them one may note the details that distinguish this season's styles, and most cleverly expressed.

In the Coat of the Suit a Flare and Panels

The flare is deftly handled and, although it is emphasized by elaborate braiding, still a straightness in effect is achieved by the panels. Priced $150.

In the Frock—Jet Beads Make a Striking Border

The Georgette crepe is dotted in blue or black on white and mounted on taffeta, in some white, others blue or black. The girdle is of taffeta. Priced at $115.

Fourth Floor, North.

Women's New Suits Are $50 to $225

And within that price range women are certain, we believe, to find their preferences and plans of expenditure anticipated.

Here are suits of tricotines, of Poiret twills, with the flat, smart tuxedo collars, with braid-bound edges or braided motifs. There are suits of jersey and of mixtures. And the first of the new silk suits. Priced according to style and material.

Women's Spring Frocks Are $45 to $200

From the quaint charm of a ruffled taffeta to the winsome loveliness of the printed chiffons one goes. Then from the simple smartness of a tailored tricotine frock to the richness of a crepe meteor frock. And interest grows more and more.

New decorative motifs are noted and unusualities in the way of color touches. Beads in jewel-like colors sparkle on many a frock. The prices vary with the material and style.

Women's Easter Wraps From $50 to $250

One may be as individual as one wishes this year. If the preference be for the street coats, here are the smartest of the new in Polo cloths and tricotines. If it's utility, one finds it in mixtures and tweeds of English types.

Other coats there are admirably adapted to many and different uses.

For afternoon and evening there are exquisite wraps of duvetyn in dull rich blue tones. Or of satins with fur. Prices vary according to style and material.

Announcing a Sale Out-of-the-Usual of Corduroy Robes in New Spring Styles At These Prices, $6.95, $10.75 and $12.75

First and foremost these are such corduroy robes as will instantly win the approval of the most exacting woman. They are of soft, wide-wale corduroy, uncommonly rich in appearance. Graceful in line, becoming, practical, serviceable. Indeed, upon whatever point they are tested they will be found superior. All these robes are in the most-wanted colors.

As to the Pricings—These Are Possible Only Because of a Remarkable Purchase

Considered as pricings alone, they are notably moderate. But, viewed in connection with the robes themselves, these pricings in no way convey the measure of the values offered.

Concerning the Corduroy Robe at $6.95

This robe is sketched at the center and is in the more tailored style, designed to slip on easily and especially delightful for traveling.

Concerning the Corduroy Robe at $10.75

The Corduroy Robe Sketched at the Left Is Priced at $12.75

This is lined throughout in dotted silk mull. The collar is to be worn either high or low, the sleeves are long, and there are deep, convenient pockets. Remarkably smart and serviceable.

Every Woman and Young Girl Who Realizes the Satisfaction of a Corduroy Robe Will Be Certain to Make Early Selection.

The Melrose Design in New Dinnerware

The Melrose design is a charming pattern well known in English china.

106-Piece Sets at $50
32-Piece Sets at $11

While this pattern with its touch of brilliancy and color makes the dinnerware especially well adapted to the breakfast room and summer cottage service, it will prove most satisfactory for dinner service, too.

The 106-piece sets will serve twelve people. The 32-piece sets are known as breakfast sets.

This service is an "open stock" pattern for individual selection.

Wool Plaid Skirts Are Pleated

And Achieve Charming Color Effects

"This way to youth," says the separate skirt, and points the way about in pleats.

To this, their youth-giving quality, and to their adaptability for varied requirements do separate skirts this season owe their success.

These Are $32.50 and $37.50

The skirt at $32.50, sketched at the right, is in a small plaid, brown and tan. Two pockets and a belt are the details.

The separate skirt at $37.50 is sketched at the left. It has rather an elongated check pattern most effective in the color combinations, which are brown and tan, and blue and tan.

From $20 to $42.50 Are Other New Wool Plaid Skirts

Some there are that tell their newness in vivid colorings harmoniously combined. Others show their difference from the usual by clever handling of pleats. All have little unusualities in detail.

Fourth Floor, East.

Babies' New Spring Coats and Hats

These Are the First Requisites of the Easter Outfit

It is particularly of coats and hats this announcement brings word. But here are so many lovely new garments mention must be made of them also.

There are daintily fine little frocks, all white, or sturdy little play frocks in gay colors. Boys' tub suits, too, simple and smart-looking.

For Baby Boys—Covert Cloth Top-Coats, $17.50

Made after the manner of big brother's coat with inverted pleat at the back and three deep convenient pockets. The fine tailoring is certain to meet mother's approval. In sizes 1, 2 and 3 years, sketched at the right. The little straw hat on the same figure is $3.95.

Navy Blue Serge Coats for Tiny Girls at $24.50

This is the coat sketched at the left. Note the smart pleats, the little sash belt and the hand-embroidered collar. One of many styles at this price. The quaint little hat on the same figure is priced at $5.95.

At $12.75 there are serge coats in several smart little styles unusual at this pricing.
